TO OMIT PICNIC MEETING FOR ADAMS BOARDS

The members of the Adams County Board of School Directors at their May meeting Monday evening voted to omit the convention-picnic of the county school directors this summer and accepted the resignation of a special education teacher at New Oxford.

The directors received from Assistant County Superintendent of Schools George B. Inskip reports on state surveys of the need for area technical schools in this part of the state. New legislation affecting the area technical schools is under consideration now at Harrisburg.

The board accepted the resignation of Mary Elizabeth Hoffman, Zora, as a special education teacher at New Oxford in the elementary grades, effective at the end of this school term. Her position has not been filled and another special "ed" position is to be filled in Franklin Twp.

RE-ELECT ASQUITH

The decision to omit the summer convention-picnic session this year, usually held late in July or early August at the South Mountain Fairgrounds, was made when it developed there was no business requiring attention at that time but the prospect of possible future meetings of the directors of the county on pending education matters. Most school business is transacted at the December convention of the county directors.

Dean Asquith, Biglerville, was re-elected for another year as treasurer of the county board and the Biglerville National Bank was designated as the board's depository. Arrangements were approved for the bonding of the secretary, treasurer and the provision of $75,000 in collateral by the depository to secure school deposits.

The board authorized school board representatives to participate in the formation of a joint action committee on education in

END OFFICIAL VOTE COUNT THIS MORNING

The official count of the votes cast at last Tuesday's primary was completed late Tuesday afternoon with the tellers finding there were more candidates written in for various offices than there was space for candidates in the books provided by the state for the official tabulation.

As a result, the tellers added a number of sheets to the original tabulation book to write in the names of the hundreds of persons who received one vote each, or in some instances two votes for such offices as county surveyor, district attorney and others, including commissioner, where there were 15 names on the ballots.

The official tabulation showed little difference in totals from the unofficial count made last Tuesday night and Wednesday morning.

TOTALS COMPILED

Where there was no competition for county offices no tabulation was kept last Tuesday night in the unofficial count. The official results for those unopposed offices as completed today follow:

For associate judge, Republican, Clarence D. Deardorff, Cash-town, 5,791; Democratic, Wilbur L. Plank received 3,194. In each case there were a few write-ins for others.

For attorney, Gerald R. Walmer, candidate for the Republican nomination for district attorney, received 5,589 votes. Write-ins gave Daniel Teeter, 56 votes; Ronald Hagarman, 17; Oscar Spicer, six, and four others received one or two votes each.

5,660 FOR CRIST

George F. Weaver received 5,711 as the Republican nominee for prothonotary, while incumbent Herbert W. Miller received 3,176 votes on the Democratic ticket.

The county coroner, Dr. C. G. Crist, received 5,660 votes on the Republican ticket as the only candidate listed on the ballot for coroner.

Other candidates received a few votes for the Republican coroner position.

There were no candidates on the Democratic ticket for coroner. Robert E. Miller, who conducted a sticker campaign received 438

$2,000 In Jewels Stolen On Sunday

State police here reported today the theft of $2,000 in jewelry from the auto of Dr. P. J. McGlynn, E. York St., Biglerville, while the machine was parked Sunday at the Gettysburg Country Club where Dr. McGlynn was golfing.

He parked the car about noon and at 5 p.m. when he returned to it found that three rings, a charm bracelet and a bracelet watch belonging to his wife had been stolen from a pocketbook left in the car. It was not determined how entrance was gained to the car which the physician said was locked.

Depending on their interest and abilities, apprentices may also be assigned roles in some of the productions.

High school and college students as well as any others interested in learning the theater in a practical manner may call Schmidt at the theater.

Pope John, Weakened By Persistent Hemorrhaging, Weathers Brush With Death; Has An Abnormal Growth In Stomach; His Condition Is Very Grave

By BENNETT M. BOLTON
VATICAN CITY (AP) — Death brushed close to Pope John XXIII today, but he weathered the crisis.

Persistent hemorrhaging left him in grave condition. The Vatican disclosed he is suffering from gastric heteroplasia — a growth in the stomach. This could be a cancer or a tumor, either benign or malignant.

The diagnosis, published by the Vatican newspaper, L'Osservatore Romano, was the first specifically defining the illness of the 81-year-old Roman Catholic pontiff.

TENSE HOURS

The dictionary definition of heteroplasia is formation of abnormal tissue or of normal tissue in an abnormal locality.

Three doctors were at the Pope's bedside and worked to stem hemorrhaging, Vatican sources reported.

It was the worst crisis of the illness which felled him briefly last fall and has since recurred intermittently.

Medical personnel rushed in and out of the papal apartment. It is possible the doctors have not determined the exact kind of growth involved. In the past, surgery had been considered for exploratory purposes — and been rejected as too dangerous for the pontiff because of his age and condition.

Until today, the Vatican had said only that the Pope had a stomach disorder.

L'Osservatore said the hemorrhages, "caused by the gastric heteroplasia, which has affected the Holy Father for about a year, after being arrested for several months, have had an accentuated resumption in recent days."

"They have now been attenuated, and the organic consequences linked to them are, through today, limited and compensated by the curative measures adopted," it added.

Aside from disclosing the growth, the statement also disclosed for the first time that the Pope had been ill for a year. Until now, his illness had been dated to last November.

THREE DOCTORS

The doctors were Piero Mazzoni of Rome, who has remained almost constantly at the apostolic palace for a week; Antonio Gasbarrini, the Pope's personal physician, and Pietro Valdoni, one of Italy's leading surgeons.

Mazzoni went to the Pope's bedside at 9:15 a.m. An hour later Gasbarrini was ushered into the papal apartment. Then Valdoni was called in.

A Vatican source said the dif-

SCHOOL BOARD CHANGES TAX; FILLS OFFICES

The Gettysburg Area School District board, meeting Monday evening in the local high school, formally approved the resolution increasing the tax on occupation assessments from five to 10 per cent. The resolution also formally noted that husbands are responsible for the payment of their wives' occupation taxes.

The resolution passed without discussion, the board having previously agreed to the plan when it adopted its budget for the coming year in May.

Orville B. Orner, was re-elected secretary of the board for a four-year term. Orner had been elected 3½ years ago to fill the unexpired term of Robert H. Deardorff when Deardorff moved to the presidency of the board.

TREASURER NAMED

The law firm of Brown, Swope and MacPhail was named as solicitor for the board, a position the firm has held since the area board was established.

The Gettysburg National Bank was named as treasurer-depository for a one-year term, succeeding the Adams County National Bank which has been treasurer-depository since 1959. The change came under a custom carried on by the school board for a number of years of rotating the position of treasury-depository between the two local banks every four years.

The board authorized payment of the expenses of the adult education director at a conference to be held in Pennsylvania State University in July.

The board discussed at some length the time for the next meeting and finally left the matter up to decision of the solicitor for the board.

NEXT DATE A PROBLEM

Normally the board would have no problem with its July meeting. The regular time for sessions is the first Monday of the month.

Following two lectures by the hospital administrator for orientation, the men tour the hospital, including the operating room. # WOMAN FASTS 117 DAYS; HAS LOST APPETITE

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Elaine Johnson says she has lost her appetite after fasting for 117 days. Also missing: 136 pounds.

Mrs. Johnson, 39, ended her fast Friday at Wadsworth Veterans Administration hospital in West Los Angeles where she is taking part in an obesity research program.

When she went on her water and vitamin regimen Jan. 28 she weighed 315 pounds.

Mrs. Johnson, a former WAVE, broke her diet with a spoonful of cottage cheese and a quarter-cup of egg nog.

"I couldn't eat it all," she said Monday. "It was too much."

Doctors said that the reason Mrs. Johnson—and the others undergoing the starvation treatment—could survive without food was because they could literally live off their own fat.

Mrs. Johnson said she is planning to remain at the hospital, eating a skimpy 300-calorie-a-day diet, until she gets down to her desired weight of 150 pounds. That means another 29 pounds to be shed.

AMERICANISM

ica, my teacher said, you can go as far in education as your mind and your will and your ability to work will permit.

"And he praised America not because it had solved all of its problems of social justice, or racial justice, of freedom and peace and democracy, but because it is working toward a solution of those problems."

AMERICAN CITIZEN

"Then he told me that I was an American citizen and that my father still lived in America and that he had sent money to provide my transportation to the United States. I was 13 and I rushed to the American consul. But I found I had to have a birth certificate to prove that I was myself. It was five years before I was able to come to America."

"I was 19 and a dishwasher in a Greek restaurant in New York when a tall man came back to the kitchen with the proprietor. I was told he was the president of the Rotary Club and they wanted me as an immigrant to America to speak. I knew 300 words of English, and I made the first of thousands of speeches."

"When I left Syria my teacher told me to leave behind all the hates of the old world in order to be worthy to live in America."

"Here I found the American dream and that dream is not just the American dream, it is the human dream—the dream of all people to be able to live together in peace and friendship with equal opportunity to all. We have not achieved it, but we are so much closer to it than all the other nations."

"America today is being threatened again by the Old World which is seeking to pull America down into the hates and bloodshed and inhumanity of the rest of the world. But America needs to show its true strength—that it is far more than just another big country."

2 & LAST AD AMERICANISM

"The world is plagued with nationalities and ideologies, with walls that people have erected around themselves against all others without realizing that it is themselves they are putting in the dungeon."

"This is not America. America is the place where no man is Irish or Pole or Syrian or Russian or German or anything else but an American."

"I like to believe that America is the proving ground for the world republic that some day will fill the whole world, a republic that will make the whole world an America from which the dungeons will be removed, from which will have departed all the nationalities and the ideologies which try to destroy humanity."

"The astronauts and the cosmonauts going around the world so many times have missed the point that Wendell Wilkie made that this is truly 'one world' and one humanity."

Alexander Griest and Dr. Kenneth Smoke led group singing. C. William Harbaugh reported that next Monday will be children's night and following the dinner at the YWCA the members and children will go to the Little Red Schoolhouse Museum.

FIND MATERIAL FROM LOST SUB

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—Fifteen small boxes of metal rings, repair parts carried aboard many U.S. Navy ships, have been recovered from the ocean floor by a ship searching for the lost submarine Thresher. Atlantic Fleet Headquarters reported today.

The parts, called "O rings," were recovered by the Lamont laboratory ship Conrad Monday as she worked with drag lines "in the area of prime interest," a fleet spokesman said.

The nuclear sub Thresher went down April 10 during a test dive with 129 men aboard 220 miles off Boston.

Capt. Frank A. Andrews, task group commander for on-scene operations in the Thresher search, left the search area Monday on the destroyer Dupont for a conference at Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution with a technical advisory group from the office of the chief of naval operations.

The conference will make recommendations for future operations to Vice Adm. E. W. Grenfell, commander of the Atlantic Fleet Submarine Force.

Meantime, a naval court of inquiry in Portsmouth, N.H., is studying fresh photographs of the ocean floor taken in an attempt to determine how the Thresher mysteriously sank.

church biweekly magazine, reported that circulation has "practically doubled" since January 1 and that the goal for the publication is a copy in every Lutheran home.

Dr. Lloyd M. Keller, Orrtanna, and Julius H. Hubb, Baltimore, synod members on the board of trustees of Gettysburg College, reported to the convention this afternoon that the college board of trustees initiated action to amend its charter to provide for an increase in its membership thus permitting Maryland Synod to elect three board members. The trustees also reported the college is participating in a cooperative program of faculty study in Asian cultures made possible by a Ford Foundation grant. Dr. Carl Arnold Hanson, president of Gettysburg College, addressed the convention upon the state of the college.

ELECTIONS TO BE HELD
Work among students on college and university campuses in the synod area was reviewed by Miss Pat Peterson and Pastor Theodore Caspar for the University of Maryland at College Park; by Pastor Louis V. Rogers for the University of Delaware; by Mrs. Herbert Shuckle for the Baltimore area schools; and by Pastor Kenneth Morelock for the Frostburg area. The Rev. Gilbert Doan, division of students and university work of the National Lutheran Council, addressed the convention.

Scheduled to report to the convention on Wednesday morning are the presidents of the three synod auxiliaries. Mrs. Albert Fisher, Baltimore, will speak concerning the work of the Lutheran Church Women; Charles Hilbing, Baltimore, for the Lutheran Church Men; and Ronald Couchman, Hagerstown, for the Luther League.

The synod will choose 10 clerical and 10 lay delegates to attend the convention of the Lutheran Church in America to be held in Pittsburgh in July, 1964. Also to be elected are three clerical and two lay members of the executive board.

Greenholt of Littlestown conducted Protestant services at the camp while the Catholic Scouts attended Mass at Fairfield or Gettysburg. The encampment closed at 1:30 to permit the youths to obtain the Sabin polio vaccine.

One member of the camporee group, John Bowman, Troop 84, Littlestown, served Saturday afternoon for the annual services on the battlefield here by the Irish Brigade of Philadelphia.

Pope John

ficulty in halting the internal bleeding brought deep concern.

Shortly after noon, Gasbarrini and Valdoni departed. Mazzoni apparently was continuing to stand by, as he has for seven days and nights.

ATTACKS INCREASE

In the past, the Pope has rallied after receiving blood transfusions and blood clotting agents. Apprehension was relieved only in part by the departure of Gasbarrini and Valdoni. It was believed that the hemorrhaging may have been at least temporarily controlled. But it was noted the attacks were becoming more frequent.

SIGNS LETTERS

Vatican officials said the cardinal called on urgent business. He also visited the Pope on Monday night and the pontiff then signed several letters.

Cardinal Cicognani is one of the few prelates who has been seeing the Pope almost daily.

The Vatican press office, which earlier had said a communique might be issued, reported the doctors did not feel the Pope's condition was such as to warrant a communique.

CAUSE CONCERN

Gasbarrini told newsmen the Pope's condition was stationary.

That statement was enough to cause concern. It contrasted with Vatican statements Monday that the Pope was slightly improved.

Hundreds of persons called the Vatican to inquire about the Roman Catholic ruler's condition.

The switchboard operator told them Monday: "A little better."

Today they were told: "Stationary."

One Vatican source said the Pope apparently spent a tranquil night. This morning he did not leave his bed to say Mass. He received communion in bed. The doctors had warned him he might suffer further weakening bleeding if he got up.

Vatican sources said the Pope sat up briefly once or twice Monday in an armchair. They also said that for brief periods, when he felt able, he devoted himself to correcting a preliminary draft of a book he is writing about the Bishop of Bergamo, under whom he first served.

Ice packs have been placed on Pope John's stomach to help coagulate his blood and reduce hemorrhaging, informants said.

The papal sacristan remained near to administer extreme unction, the sacrament given to the critically ill.

Pope John's grave illness has caused suspension of Vatican plans for a papal audience with President Kennedy next month.

Prayers were being said around the world for the Italian tenant farmer's son who became spiritual ruler of the world's half billion Roman Catholics.

Moderate Rally

NEW YORK (AP) — Motors, steels and selected issues paced a moderate stock market rally early this afternoon—the anniversary of the "Black Monday" plunge of 1962. Trading was relatively light.

Gains of fractions to a point or so outnumbered losers by a comfortable margin.

The marked moved unevenly at the start, then motors began to move ahead and were followed by steels.

Sugars also rebounded from Monday's losses. Some of the erstwhile "glamour" stocks picked up 2 to 5 points.

but that falls on July 1 in the midst of the battle centennial program and the directors were hoping that they will not need to meet then.

At that time Highland Twp. will become part of the Gettysburg Area District, thus causing it to become a "new board," and under state law a number of things will have to be accomplished at that time.

A check of the law showed the board may meet up to 10 days after the July 1 date. Tentatively the board set the second Monday of July as the time for its meeting, at 7 p.m., preceding the meeting of the Gettysburg Joint School board, unless the attorney reports that there will be too many resolutions to be adopted to permit a brief meeting. In that case the board will set some other date within the 10-day period for its session.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Buchanan Valley: The May procession at St. Ignatius Church on Sunday last was a beautiful sight. First came the boys of the Sunday School and the young men of the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin led by Master Edgar F. Kimpie, cross bearer. Then followed the girls of the Sunday School and young ladies of the Sodality dressed in white with veils and wreaths. Miss Ruth Steinberger was banner bearer with two little girls, Jeanne M. Sheeringer and Pauline Oyster, as cord bearers. These all preceded the queen, Miss Rosalie Kimpie, and her four maids of honor, Alice Brady, Genevieve Kimpie, Josephine Steinberger and Kathleen Kimpie. The queen bore a beautiful crown of carnations and her maids carried bouquets of lilies of the valley. Then followed Rev. Father William Howard and the choir singing the Litany of the Blessed Virgin. The procession passed from the rectory down around the church then into the church where hymns were sung and the crowning of the statue of the Blessed Virgin by the queen, after reciting a hymn, and also a recitation by the little maids of honor. Father Howard preached a short sermon, then singing of a hymn and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament closed the services.

Judges Award School Prizes:

Announcement is made today of the prize winners in the two essay contests which have been conducted in the public schools of town during the past few months — the two subjects being "The Chautauqua" and "The Cigarette Habit." Eighty-four essays were submitted in the first contest for the sixteen Chautauqua season tickets offered by the late Philip L. Houck for the best essays. The judges were Prof. C. F. Sanders, Dr. W. A. Granville and Prof. H. Milton Roth. Special attention was given by the judges to the essays dealing with the Gettysburg Chautauqua and its benefits, with the result that Mrs. Houck will present tickets for the entire course of entertainment at this year's Chautauqua to the following: William Weaver, Charles Miller, Harold Mumper, John Rummel, Franklin Swope, Milton Tipton, Wilbur Geiselman, Isidor Lestz, Gladys Ott, Wilda Holtzworth, Ida Sheeds, Pauline Blair, Elsie Tawney, May Galbraith, Elsie Little, Marian Stallsmith. An equally large number of essays were submitted on "The Cigarette Habit" for the two prizes of $3 and $2 offered by the Mary Schick Union Y.W.C.U. and the first prize was awarded to Edith Sheely and the second to Constance Weaver. The judges in the contest were Mrs. W. H. O'Neal, I. L. Taylor and Philip R. Bickle. The papers were generally very good so that it was very difficult to make a selection of those deserving the prize.

Closing Exercises: A delightful

entertainment was given Friday afternoon by the pupils of Bethany School on High Street. The school, conducted by Miss Luella McAllister, closed this week for the summer and Friday was given over for the exercises marking the end of the year. The program opened with a song by the entire school in which the calls of various birds were imitated, the song closing with the recitation of "Bobolink." Belle Thompson gave a biography of Eugene Fields and the following poems were recited: "Seein' Things" by Elizabeth Evans; "Rock a By So" Gisela Grimm; "Little Boy Blue" Helen Miller; "The Night Wind" Keith Burger; "The Duel" Lois Van Cleave; "Booth" Hermine Grimm. A motion picture was given by five little girls and the closing feature of the entertainment was a pretty May Day song with the crowning of Helen Himes Miller as the May queen and a May-pole dance in which all took part.

TAKING IT ON THE CHIN

Anyone acquainted with boxing knows that each contestants' aim is to get over a blow on the chin. There is located a vulnerable nerve that doesn't like to "take it."

There is something in the makeup of a man, however, that counteracts the blow upon that spot — and it's found somewhere inside the heart. A man may be defeated by a blow upon the chin by his adversary, but if that man has heart, as they say, that defeat is often only a temporary one.

The works of the poets, prose writers, scientists, inventors, and discoverers live forever. Contrasted with the fame of warriors, their lustre grows, whereas the warriors grow dim with the years. Read the life of any useful and outstanding character and the story is the same — each took it on the chin at some time or other. I have seen fighters take it on the chin and then smile. That smile has always interested me, for it means a more determined spirit, a quickening of courage, and more heart to the fore.

A PREFERENCE

I think that I would rather see
My children happy at my knee,
My neighbors' smiling faces when
I start from home or come again;
A garden small, but mine to claim,
Than rise unloved to wealth or fame.I think that I would rather own
The fellowship of those I've known,
Their good opinion and their trust,
Than win by many a cruel thrust
The pomp and riches of a place
Which only knows the lawner's face.True peace is born of little things,
The song the brave canary sings,
Glad little memories of the past
Which seemed too trivial to last,
But brighter glow throughout the years
As symbols of our smiles and tears.We write our lives, where'er
We dwell,
On those who love and know us well.
Strangers may cheer us from afar,
But neighbors see us as we are,
I'd rather have my worth be told
By happy hearts than glittering gold.

TANKER LOSS

CONTINUES AS

SEA MYSTERY

NEW YORK (AP) — A Coast Guard board of inquiry has ended 37 days of public hearings stymied in its effort to find out how the tanker Marine Sulphur Queen disappeared with 39 crewmen.

The ship, carrying molten sulphur, was last heard from on Feb. 4, off the coast of Florida in rough seas. There was no distress signal. Rear Adm. James D. Craik, who headed the board of inquiry, said Monday that in the absence of any survivors or conclusive evidence the exact cause for the disappearance could not be ascertained.

He said the only conclusion that could be drawn was that the ship sank in or near the Straits of Florida. Study of evidence and testimony will continue.

The Marine Sulphur Queen sailed Feb. 2 from Beaumont, Tex., bound for Norfolk, Va. She was a converted tanker fitted with special tanks for sulphur, kept molten by steam pipes.

The testimony dwelt mainly on construction details of the ship and analysis of the debris found some time after she disappeared. Laboratory reports said there was no indication of any fire or explosion. Specialists testified that molten sulphur is not normally considered dangerously explosive.

STUDY DEBRIS

The testimony also considered whether there was a structural breakdown. The sulphur tanks were attached to the hull with bolts that slid back and forth to allow for expansion and contraction of the tanks as the temperature varied.

Cmdr. Albert S. Prevola, recorder of the inquiry board, noted that another sulphur tanker, not identified, experienced an "explosive-like report" last June 27 and its tanks bulged about 10 inches on each side.

Witnesses testified that the condition of Marine Sulphur Queen life-jackets found later indicated that some of the men may have left the ship alive. The jackets had been used, they said, and some were torn as if a shark had bitten them.

MOST OF U.S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Wet and cloudy weather covered the major part of the nation today after another outbreak of storms and heavy rain and hail in sections of the Midwest and South.

Tornadoes skipped across rural areas of Muncie, and Richmond, Ind., Monday night, damaging some buildings, uprooting trees and downing power lines. Tornado winds also lashed areas in Texas, Iowa and Missouri. Heavy hail and strong winds pounded suburban areas of Dallas and in San Antonio, Tex.

STORMS IN TEXAS

Thunderstorms rumbled across areas from western Texas and Oklahoma northeastward to the middle Mississippi and Ohio valleys eastward through the lower Mississippi Valley and Gulf Coast states to eastern Tennessee and eastern Georgia.

Rain and drizzle dampened sections in the upper Mississippi Valley and the upper Great Lakes region and showers sprinkled areas in eastern and central Ohio and western Pennsylvania.

Other showery spots were in the southwest Dakotas northern Wyoming, coastal areas in south central California and in southern Florida.

Mostly fair weather prevailed in the extreme northeast and northwest sections of the country. Temperatures showed only minor changes in most areas.

Vehicles Crashing In Fog

ELIZABETH N. J. (AP)—Hidden in a blanket of fog, a Connecticut family listened fearfully as trucks roared past them and barreled into a death-filled pileup of vehicles on the New Jersey Turnpike Monday.

All around them, J. C. Harding of Middletown, Conn., his wife and three small daughters heard the crash of chain-reaction collisions that took the lives of six truckers and injured seven other persons. Twelve trucks and three cars were smashed in the worst disaster in the 11-year history of the super-highway.

The dead included Ronald D. Pyle, 27, of Butler, Pa. Treated for minor injuries was Clarence McElroy, 34, of Chicago, Pa. Only moments earlier the Hardings had crashed into the rear wheel of a flatbed truck, Harding managed to back his car 50 feet to the rear and stop near a center divider of the six-lane highway.

WAIT FOR HOURS

There the family waited for hours while workers delved twisted wreckage and pried bodies from the debris that ringed them. None of us was scratched," said Mrs. Madge Harding, who cradled her 10-month-old baby Martha, through the ordeal. "I must have been a miracle. I don't know how we escaped."

Fog, not human error, was the killer, in the pre-dawn disaster, state police said. The fatal stretch of highway between Elizabeth and Newark Airport, lies a few feet lower than surrounding areas and is a notorious collector of fog.

"When the fog rolled in, it was just as if someone had turned out all the lights," said Marshall Geist who pulled his truck to a halt just behind the last truck in the pileup. "We were tangled together like a barrel of fish hooks," said a surviving driver.

CHAIN OF CRASHES

Police believed two trucks and a tiny Volkswagen car were the first in the accident chain. A truck with Y. B. Coates of Roseboro, N. C., at the wheel, slowed as it entered the fog and was struck and pushed 75 feet by a tractor-trailer driven by Dillard G. Robinson, 26, of Siler City, N. C. Both trucks rammed the Volkswagen driven by Samuel Baker of Phillipsburg, N. J.

NEW YORK (AP)—New York Giants quarterback Y. A. Tittle was reported resting comfortably today in St. Vincent's Hospital following minor surgery on his right elbow.

The 36-year-old star passer had complained of elbow pains last season after the Giants-Gren Bay Packers National Football League title game, and subsequent examinations revealed a swollen bursa sac.

The injury, aggravated every time Tittle was hit by an opposing tackler, had grown to the size of a silver dollar before it was removed Monday.

Tittle will remain in the hospital a few more days, then rest for about three weeks prior to starting loosening up exercises for the Giants training camp in July.

LOSS OF WILLS
BIG PROBLEM
FOR DODGERSBy MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Maury Wills had a great fall, and all the team's medical men have failed to put Maury together again.

That was the problem plaguing the Los Angeles Dodgers today as they faced the indefinite loss of the base-stealing whiz whose bad toe is beginning to cause the club as much concern as did last year's ailment to Sandy Koufax' finger.

While the Dodgers prepared to renew their race for the National League pennant after Monday's open date for all clubs, Wills was undergoing X-ray treatments at a Los Angeles hospital, and facing possible surgery.

MAY TAKE SURGERY

Dr. Robert Kerlan, Dodgers' team physician, said Monday that Wills is suffering from calcification of the joint of the second toe on the left foot. He said if the toe does not respond to treatment Wills might have to undergo an operation that would sideline him for three weeks or more.

Dr. Kerlan is one in a series of medical men who have examined Wills. The Dodgers' shortstop said he saw a hypodermic during the winter because the legs that stole 104 bases last year "ached me, or at least I got it into my head that they ached me."

He had no doubts when he had his great fall on opening day. Sliding into the plate in a game against the Chicago Cubs, he wrenched his ankle. He missed a few games, then came back. Soon after the calcification problem set in, causing darting shafts of pain that inhibited his running.

MISSED 13 GAMES

So far, Wills has missed 13 games. He has hit only 252 and stolen 11 bases. At this stage last year, Wills had stolen 23 bases and was on his way to the Most Valuable Player award.

Despite that, the Dodgers did not win the pennant, with Koufax being cited as the main reason.

First diagnosed as a minor problem, the circulatory ailment to Koufax' finger continued to plague him and the left-handed ace of the Dodger staff was sidelined from mid-July to the last days of the season.

INDIANS HAVE TROUBLES

While the Dodgers were worrying about Wills becoming a Koufax, the Cleveland Indians had their worst fears about catcher Johnny Romano confirmed. Examination showed Romano broke the little finger on his throwing hand in Sunday's doubleheader with Baltimore.

The injury came right on the heels of the trade in which reserve catcher Doc Edwards was traded to Kansas City last Saturday for infielder Dick Howser and catcher Joe Azcue.

To bolster their receiving corps, the Indians called up catcher Jim Lawrence and pitcher Ted Abernathy from Jacksonville of the International League. In another move, outfielder Ellis Burton was sold to Salt Lake City of the Pacific Coast League.

BIG NAMES GO
AT AQUEDUCT
ON THURSDAY

NEW YORK (AP)—Five big stars from the 3-year-old ranks of last season, including the winners of the Kentucky Derby and Preakness, are expected to clash with 10 or 12 others Thursday in the $100,000-added Metropolitan Handicap at Aqueduct.

The Memorial Day race at 1 mile is the first of New York's $300,000 handicap triple, and Fred W. Hooper's Admiral's Voyage is expected to head the field with 12 pounds. Montpelier Farm's Mongo, winner of the Camden Handicap Saturday at Garden State Park, also was assigned 12, but his status is doubtful.

Crimson King Farm's Crimson Satan, 123; Townsend B. Martin's Sunrise County, 121; El Peco Ranch's Decidedly, 119; and Brandywine Stable's Greek Money, 116, are expected to go against Admiral's Voyage. Decidedly won the Derby, and Greek Money the Preakness last year.

After the Metropolitan, being run for the 70th time, there are two other $100,000 handicaps completing the rich triple. The Suburban is set for July 4 and the Brooklyn July 20, both at 1½ miles.

Long Rifle," as it is now, or the "Pennsylvania Long Rifle," as Pennsylvania historians claim it should.

The 10 men and four women who started the 750-mile trip on horseback from Reading, Pa., on May 15, are to be welcomed by Col. George Chinn, director of the Kentucky Historical Society, and a delegation of businessmen, when they reach Cumberland Gap Thursday.

GHS ACCEPTED AS MEMBER OF
GOLF LEAGUE

Gettysburg High School, which will field its first golf team next spring, and Cedar Cliff were admitted as new members of the Susquehanna Golf League at a meeting of league officials Monday evening at the Country Side Inn, near Williams Grove.

The league operated with but four schools during the past season, Bishop McDevitt of Harrisburg, Camp Hill, East Pennsboro and Northern with the league title going to Northern.

Golf was approved as a varsity sport for Gettysburg by the school Board some time ago and application was made shortly afterwards for admission into the Susquehanna League.

Barry Light, who has been named as the coach of the Warrior squad, and George Forney, athletic director, attended the meeting.

Reed Ernst, Camp Hill, president of the league, presided. He awarded the 1963 team championship trophy to Robert Bostic, coach of the Northern squad. Bostic is also secretary-treasurer of the league.

APPROVE SCHEDULE

The league schedule for 1964 was approved, each team playing 10 matches. During standard time observance matches will start at 3 p.m. and during the observance of daylight time the matches will begin at 3:30.

The District 3 PIAA tournament is scheduled to be held next spring on May 15 and league players will be eligible to participate provided they meet entrance requirements of 500 or better.

Gettysburg's schedule for its initial season follows:

April 6, McDevitt, home; 10, Camp Hill, away; 13, Cedar Cliff, home; 17, East Pennsboro, away; 24, Northern, away; 27, Camp Hill, home; May 1, Cedar Cliff, away; 4, East Pennsboro, home; 11, Northern, home; 18, McDevitt, away.

'500' DRIVERS
WORRY OVER
"PIT" STOPS

By DALE BURGESS
Associated Press Sports Writer

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Drivers were talking more about pit stops than speed today as the Indianapolis Motor Speedway was opened for a last brief practice session before the 500-mile race Thursday.

The conventional Offenhauser-powered roadsters, winners of the last 12 Memorial Day classics, have been making three or more pit stops in recent races.

Colin Chapman of London, who built the chassis of the two Lotus-Fords in the field, is planning one stop apiece for Grand Prix drivers Jimmy Clark and Dan Gurney.

EYES TWO STOPS

Mickey Thompson of Long Beach, Calif., with two unusually light Chevrolet-powered cars in the line-up, hopes to hold veteran Duane Carter and rookie Al Miller to two stops apiece.

There is a possibility that Parnelli Jones, the qualification record holder, may try for only two stops, too. His Agajanian special is lighter than most of the other conventional Liftys.

Twenty-three of the 33 starters will ride on a new 15-inch tire developed specifically for the Lotus-Fords. Other drivers and car owners liked the wider tread and shifted to the new tires. Carter's car has tiny 12-inch wheels.

The rest of the field will run on the standard speedway tires, 18-inches in the rear and 16s in front.

CONOCODELL TOURNEY

A "Calloway" handicap golf tournament will be held at the Conocodell course, Fayetteville, beginning Thursday and continuing through Sunday. There will be no entry fee and prizes will be donated by the pro shop. All golfers are invited to participate and to hand in complete scores to the pro shop each time they play.

CASSIUS FULL OF TALK AS HE MEETS LONDON

By ANTHONY WHITE

LONDON (AP)—Cassius Marcellus Clay, who needs no introduction, got a word of warning today:

Button your mouth—or a British fighter might do it for you.

The American heavyweight hit town Monday, London, taking it squarely on the chin, reeled. Today the old place was still groggily shaking its head.

Clay—here to tangle with British and Empire champion Henry Cooper on June 18—arrived prophesying the destruction of his opponent in five rounds.

LOTS OF QUOTES

He held up an open palm, five fat fingers extended.

British fans got the message. The characteristic Clay quotes dropped thick and fast:

"I am the boldest and most popular and most prettiest fighter in the world today and naturally I am going to be the champion of the world."

"The big fighters see me on the horizon and they tremble. . . I am too quick for Cooper. I think too fast. . . I'll ruin him. It's too bad. You shouldn't have allowed him to get into the ring with me. I'll be his last fight."

GETS WARNING

But from one sports writer—Jack Wood of the Daily Mail—Clay got a warning that his endless boasting could land him in trouble.

Wood said Clay's boast about not bothering to train hard for this fight—because licking Cooper would be easy—was dangerous nonsense.

"Is Clay that good?" the sports writer asked. "Can he dismiss Cooper with a few thousand words and a few rounds of sparring and conditioning?"

"The answer: No. If Clay has come to believe his own publicity, if he has decided he is the greatest when his record shows that he is not, then the Lip could be firmly buttoned."

BIG LITTLE LEAGUE

The American League opened its league season successfully Monday evening by downing the Eagles 6-3.

Larry White hurled the first four innings for the winners during which he fanned 10 and walked six. Mike Herring relieved White in the fifth when the Eagles scored all of their three runs.

George Reber paced the Legion with a pair of doubles. The Eagles secured but two hits, both by Ronnie Redding.

Tonight the Legion opposes the Exchange Club.

JOHANSSON TO QUIT BOXING

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—Ingemar Johansson says he's sticking strictly to business from now on. And the business isn't boxing.

Johansson, the 32-year-old Swede with the "toonder and lightning" right who once held the world heavyweight championship, has reaffirmed his decision to retire from boxing and concentrate on his varied business interests.

"I quit," he said emphatically Sunday in a television interview. "And I won't change my mind."

The present European titleholder said approximately the same thing on May 8 after gaining a 12-round decision over England's Brian London, described by Johansson as a fighter "my kid sister can beat with one hand tied behind her back."

Johansson had difficulty doing it with his two hands out front. He was floored by London in the final seconds of the April 21 fight and was practically out on his feet when the bout ended.

GETTYSBURG
LITTLE LEAGUE

A seven-run first inning and a five-run sixth gave the Rotary a 13-3 triumph over the Elks Monday evening.

The Rotary victory was highlighted by the hitting of the entire squad and clutch pitching by Jeff Cushman and Terry Bowling. All starting Rotary players had at least one hit and scored at least one run, the squad pounding out 17 safeties. Jeff Chamberlain potted three hits while six other Rotary hitters rapped two each.

Cushman gave up but three hits in the four innings he pitched and also yielded seven walks, three of which gave the Elks their runs.

Smith, Maitland and Asay accounted for the Elks' hits.

Tonight the Lions and Glenn L. Bream teams will clash.

CONEWAGO
LITTLE LEAGUE

Fee's Cardinals tallied two runs in the top of the sixth inning to nip Sylvania Shoe 2-1 in a well-played game Monday evening, the winning rally resulting on a single and three bases on balls.

In the final inning the bases were loaded with one out when Mike Sweeney stole home with what proved to be the winning run.

Sylvania Shoe scored its lone run in the bottom of the third inning when Don Swope singled and ran home on Rick Reese's triple.

Reese pitched a brilliant game for the losers, allowing but three hits and striking out 15. Bob Sherdel started for Fee's but gave way to Bill Conrad who allowed but one hit and whiffed seven in the remaining innings.

'Tuning Fork'
Aids Jet Lights

URBANA, Ohio (AP)—The principle of a tuning fork—which always produces the same musical note because it vibrates an exact number of times per second—is being used to protect tiny wing-tip navigation lights on supersonic jet planes.

Engineers at Grimes Manufacturing Co. decided to isolate these little lamps with a stainless steel ribbon "tuning fork". 125 inches thick and 2.75 inches long. It vibrates at some 200 cycles a second, even though the wings of many supersonic jets vibrate many hundreds of times per second when approaching twice the speed of sound.

Although the tiny quartz-iodine lamps cannot even be touched by human hands without being wiped clean again before energizing, they are rugged enough to take vibrations up to 200 cycles per second, the company says.

HARRISBURG (AP)—Sen. Z. H. Confair, R-Lycorning, introduced a bill in the Senate Monday to add two sections of road in Muncy Township to the state highways system.

New Bell Tower Will Honor Nation's Dead Servicewomen

EDITOR'S NOTE — Memorial Day, like war, generally concerns men who have died for their country. But women, too, have given the supreme sacrifice.

By MARTHA COLE

WASHINGTON (AP)—War, they always used to say, is man's business.

But as far back as the Revolutionary War, when Molly Pitcher in a petticoat, gunner's jacket and battered cocked hat—grabbed a gun, women have been leaving their kitchens to help fight their country's enemies.

American women, too, have given their lives in service to their country.

NURSES KILLED

During World War II, for instance, in 1944 on the beachhead at Anzio, Italy, two Army nurses had just finished giving blood plasma to a soldier when a shell hit. They were killed at the patient's side. In their honor, the Army named a hospital ship after one of them, Lt. Blanche F. Sigman of East Akron, Ohio.

In honor of these and all American women whose lives were sacrificed in war service, a bell tower will be dedicated "in grateful tribute" on May 30, Memorial Day, at Rindge, N.H.

President Kennedy will send his official wreath to be placed on the altar at the groundbreaking services.

1,088 WOMEN DIED

Statistics at the Department of Defense show that 1,088 women died while in uniform service to their country during the first and second World Wars and the Korean conflict.

The American Red Cross lists 300 women workers dead in the two world wars.

Officially, American women did not join their brothers in uniform until 1901, when the Army Nurse Corps was established. The Navy Nurse Corps was authorized in 1908.

Then, during World War II, more women put on the uniform of their country to man the switchboards in North Africa, pound typewriters on Guadalcanal and sail the seas as radio operators.

These were the new Molly Pitchers, the skirted soldiers of the Women's Army Corps, the Waves of the Navy, Spars of the Coast Guard and the women Marines. Later, in 1948, the Women's Air Force was formed.

65,000 OVERSEAS

During the second world war, about 350,000 women saw active military duty, with 65,000 serving overseas. They accounted for about 3 per cent of the 12 million in active service. And 586 women gave their lives to their country.

The Wacs suffered 225 deaths in World War II, 12 of whom died of wounds recorded as battle casualties. There were limitations against their service on the battlefield.

A special plot is set aside in Arlington National Cemetery for Army nurses, who are buried with full military honors. More than 150 lie there, 45 of them from the Spanish-American War.

Nurses served, too, in the Civil War under contract. After the siege of Vicksburg, Miss. The Union navy outfitted a confiscated Confederate steamer, Red Rover, as a floating hospital. Nuns of the nursing sisterhood went aboard to care for the patients.

The Union had its Dr. Mary Walker, a New York surgeon who worked in field hospitals under contract. She wore pants, vest, frock coat and a tall silk hat.

Dr. Walker was given the Medal of Honor for her tireless service. But this was rescinded, along with many others, in the congressional review and re-statement of standards for the medal in 1916.

WILLOW GROVE, Pa. (AP)—The Willow Grove Naval Air Station will be renamed the Philadelphia Naval Air Station, Hershman Township, on July 1. Capt. A. C. Wadman Jr., commanding officer, said that station "should be identified with something big." He added that most of the residents at the station are from Philadelphia.

Siamese Twin Dies After Long Illness

FERRIS, Ill. (AP)—Rodney D. Brodie, who was separated from his Siamese twin brother in a historic operation more than a decade ago, died Sunday at his home at the age of 11.

His grandmother, Mrs. Will Brodie of Burnside, Ill., said the boy had been in a slow decline for about eight months.

Dr. J. D. Trotter of Carthage, Ill., who treated the boy, said death was due to an abnormal condition existing at birth, but inability to swallow food was the immediate cause.

Rodney and his brother, Roger Lee Brodie, were joined at the head when they were born Sept. 16, 1951, at Rock Island, Ill. They were separated in an operation at Chicago Research Hospital when they were 15 months old.

Roger Lee died several weeks after the operation.

Radio Station Up To 10,000 Watts

SUNBURY, Pa. (AP)—Radio station WKOK began broadcasting Monday on increased power of 10,000 watts, a jump from 250.

The expanded coverage was inaugurated at a mid-day dedication program at which General Manager Homer Smith was master of ceremonies. Smith said the station at its new strength expected to reach 3.5 million listeners.

WKOK, which has been on the air since 1933, now becomes the sixth most powerful radio station in Pennsylvania. Its place on the dial, with the change in power, moved from 1240 kilocycles to 1070.

BOSTON (AP)—Lt. Michael L. Browne, of the Pennsylvania commandery, was elected registrar of the Military Order of Foreign Wars at the organization's 26th annual convention Saturday.

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—Robert E. Adney of West Chester, Pa., was elected senior deputy supreme tall cedar of the Tall Cedars of Lebanon at the final session of the organization's 61st annual convention Saturday. Edward W. Amole, of Coatesville, Pa., was elected trustee.

Littlestown EXPLORERS AT CAMPOREE

Members and leaders of Explorer Post No. 84 participated in the spring camporee of the Black Walnut District held over the weekend at the Twin Lock Pheasant Farm, near Fairfield. The post was in charge of building and lighting the camp fire on Saturday night for the camporee program. Following church services on Sunday, the units in the camp toured the pheasant farm, saw eggs in incubation, chicks and ducklings, picking and other equipment; they were also shown a group of hunting dogs.

Arrangements for the trip were in charge of William Ritter, assisted by President Thomas Shildt. Ronald Benner was in charge of cooking. Transportation was provided by Carl Ritter, Thomas Shildt, Associate Advisor Lee Krout, Advisor Stanley F. Frock. Those who participated in the camporee were President Shildt, Carl Ritter, Ronald Benner, Gary Long, Larry Altoff, Robert Altoff, Harold Storm, Raymond Miller, Dennis Wastler, Associate Advisor Krout, Advisor Frock and son, Richard.

Boy Scout Troop No. 84 and Explorer Post 84 had brief business sessions separately on Monday evening at the Community Center, after which they had a joint meeting.

The troop and post had a training session in preparation to host the handicapped troop of Boy Scouts from Paoli on June 8 and 9. The training was in charge of Advisor Frock, Associate Advisor Robert Hahn, Scoutmaster Edgar A. Wolfe, Assistant Scoutmaster John R. Rudisill and Institutional Representative L. D. Snyder. The coming event will be held on Pardee Field, Gettysburg Battlefield. The final training session of the troop and post will take place at a joint meeting next Monday at 7 p.m. at the Community Center.

Services for Joan Sandra Alpertson, 21, of Forty Fort, a medical technician at the Valley Crest Institute, will be in nearby Wyoming.

Services for Samuel M. DeNunzio, 24, a Scranton furniture salesman, will be in his home town.

Their bodies were found in DeNunzio's car on a rural road 10 miles south of here Saturday. Anthony Recupero, Luzerne County deputy coroner who issued the verdict of murder-suicide, said DeNunzio apparently shot Miss Alpertson with a .12-gauge shotgun, then took his own life.

Recupero said the couple had been keeping company for about a year. He said no notes were left.

Pa. Democrats To Fight Amendments

HARRISBURG (AP)—Democratic State Chairman Otis B. Morse said Monday night his party would attempt to defeat three proposed states' rights amendments to the U.S. Constitution.

The amendments, backed by House Speaker W. Stuart Helm, are now before the General Assembly in resolution form.

At the same time, Morse called on Republicans to take a stand either for or against the proposals which seek to (1) establish a court of the union to curb powers of the U.S. Supreme Court, (2) make changes in the present method of amending the U.S. Constitution and (3) take away from the federal government the question of reapportionment of state legislatures.

PROBE FAILS TO SHOW ABUSE OF TFX AWARD

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington:

TFXC Senate investigations of the TFX warplane contract award have produced no evidence of fraud or abuse of discretion by Pentagon officials, says Sen. Jacob K. Javits.

Javits, a New York Republican, is a member of the Senate Investigations subcommittee which has been holding hearings aimed at finding whether favoritism influenced award of the big contract for the TFX fighter-bomber to General Dynamics Corp.

Military evaluation boards had reported that the Boeing Co. had submitted a design for a better, cheaper version of the TFX.

Republicans: Sen. Thurston B. Morton says Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's remarriage may prove to be a political asset if the New Yorker bids for the 1964 GOP presidential nomination.

Morton, Kentucky Republican who heads his party's Senate campaign committee, said Sunday in a television interview he believes Rockefeller "got over the hump on the divorce when he was re-elected by over a half million votes after that."

The governor married Margaretta Fitter Murphy on May 4.

Questioned on the same program, Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., said he does not believe Rockefeller's remarriage will have any "material effect, either upon his candidacy as a nominee or upon his election by the American people if he is the nominee of the Republican party."

NATO: Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., suggests that the United States get out of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization unless its allies are "willing to pay their full share" in the defense of Europe.

Morse, a member of the Senate Foreign relations committee, said Sunday in a television interview "we have had very little evidence, particularly from France" that the Western European nations are willing to contribute their full shares to European defenses.

Opposing Morse's view, William Tyler, assistant secretary of state for European affairs, said the United States cannot leave NATO because "the security of Europe is vital to our own security today, as it was 12 years ago."

"OLD LADY" LOCKS

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—A woman identified by suburban Weston police only as "a little old lady," saw three men break into a supermarket Sunday by prying off a padlock.

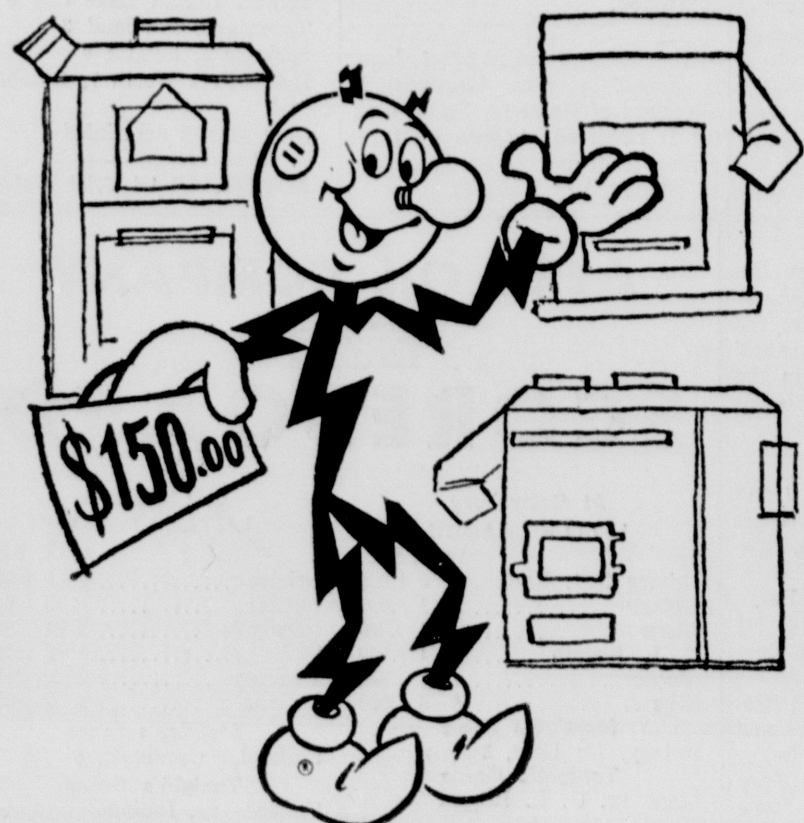

The "little old lady" took a lock of her own and put it on the hasp. Then she called police.

The three men, including one ex-convict, surrendered.

PSEA ASSAILS PROPOSAL ON PA. EDUCATION

By FRED WALTERS

HARRISBURG (AP)—"Evidently the latest proposal is a concession to a very few Pennsylvania districts who object to any change."

Dr. Ralph C. Swan, executive director of the Pennsylvania State Education Association, thus summed up the PSEA's opposition to a proposal coming up before the Senate Education Committee today to base compulsory school reorganization on 1953 plans.

The head of the powerful school lobby put his organization on record in opposition in an effort to silence talk that it might condone the proposal.

"NOT REALISTIC"

Advocates of the change cited testimony by PSEA witnesses three years at a public hearing on reorganization suggesting that the 1953 program—which was voluntary—be made mandatory.

"We are not being realistic in this day of rapid change when we mandate 1953 plans while we should be planning the units of 1973," Swan said.

The Senate committee tentatively agreed to the proposal at a meeting two weeks ago. It has been a secret, though, how many of the 18 members were on hand to vote.

LAST DITCH STAND

Word of that tentative agreement has roused advocates of a strong reorganization program to a last ditch stand.

Since the first compulsory re-districting law was adopted in 1961 program while withstanding the forces favoring repeal.

Proponents of strong reorganization now are awaiting some move by the administration to regroup legislative support for it.

GOVERNOR'S POSITION
Gov. Scranton told his weekly news conference last Thursday: "As far as I'm concerned, the bill that I'm supporting is the one that the administration has placed before the legislature."

As to whether he will fight a change, however, his only comment was: "As I understand it, the committee has not yet come out with a bill to the floor of the Senate."

The Scranton bill was intended as a substitute for the 1961 law, but preserved its essentials. These included the population goal of 4,000 pupils as a minimum for a district.

QUESTION OF DEFINITION

His major concession to the most avid opponents of reorganization was to add a feature permitting districts offering a comprehensive, quality program the opportunity to stand alone.

The Senate and House education committees, after public hearings, decided to broaden that exemption by permitting districts capable of offering a comprehensive program to stand alone.

Capability was a more liberal exemption, but had the advantage of being more easily defined than quality.

It was conceded that this would permit an escape hatch for about two dozen districts most vocal in denunciation of mandatory reorganization, but it was felt that it would serve as a safety valve and blunt the force of advocates of repeal.

SOME DIEHARDS

Then came the final push to go back to the 1953 program as a basis for reorganization.

This looms as a potential wide open door to freedom for the opponents.

There still will be a few diehards, like the 102 districts that voted at the polls last Tuesday against merging with neighbors. In all but 10 instances, they were voting against mergers based on 1953 plans.

But, if the state is going to force them to form larger units, these districts by and large will find it more acceptable to combine with as few neighbors as possible and the 1953 program offers the best possibility short of no reorganization at all.

PICKETING ON PHILADELPHIA SCHOOL SITES

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People ordered "selected" pickets posted today at a school construction site in north Philadelphia.

Cecil B. Moore, lawyer and head of the local NAACP, said only picked persons would be used in an effort to avert violence that Monday left six persons, including three policemen, injured.

The NAACP has charged that some unions on the school job—particularly electricians, steamfitters, plumbers and roofers—discriminate against Negroes.

DENIED BY UNIONS

The unions have denied it and following an emergency meeting of all parties Monday night, school board President J. Harry LaBrum said "as far as the board is concerned we can find no violations."

Further meetings between LaBrum, the NAACP and labor leaders were called for today.

The violence Monday erupted when a union representative tried to reach one of three entrances where some of the 75 pickets marched. A knot of pickets closed in on him and ten policemen moved to keep the peace.

Besides the policemen, two pickets and a union member were hurt. None was injured seriously, however.

TRIO URGES 'PIKE STUDY

HARRISBURG (AP) — A study of ways to head off possible future congestion on the Pennsylvania Turnpike and the Keystone Highway has been urged by three senators.

They submitted a resolution Tuesday which said the two east-west roads would be inadequate to handle traffic by 1970. The study would be made by the highways department.

"It is imperative that a full study be undertaken to determine the advantages and disadvantages of the various alternatives," said the resolution, which was referred to the highways committee for study.

Sponsors of the resolution were Sens. Stanley G. Stroup, R-Bedford; Paul W. Mahady, D-Westmoreland; and D. Elmer Hawbaker, R-Franklin.

Sentencing was scheduled for June 27. The offense carries a penalty of up to a year imprisonment.

A principal witness against Sullivan was Gov. Philip H. Hoff of Vermont, who was seated across the aisle from him on the plane bound from New York's Idlewild Airport at Burlington, Vt.

Hoff testified that he thought he heard Sullivan tell the stewardess: "I wish you'd check my briefcase—I've got 2½ pounds of TNT in it."

As a result of that remark, the plane was turned back and searched.

U.S. MAY LIMIT GRAIN EXPORTS IF BILL FAILS

By OVID A. MARTIN
WASHINGTON (AP) — If Congress provides no new program for wheat for 1964, the government might have to take steps to limit exports to government-owned grain.

The possibility is indicated by an executive order issued by President Kennedy late last week giving Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman authority to regulate exports to meet conditions set up under the International Wheat Agreement. This agreement is designed to help stabilize world prices and markets through a system of export and import quotas and maximum and minimum prices.

Rejection of a new wheat control program at a grower referendum last week raised the possibility that 1964 U. S. wheat prices might drop below world market levels set up under the agreement. Uncontrolled U. S. exports could wreck the agreement.

Freeman has said that without a control program, wheat prices next year would likely drop to around $1 a bushel. This would be from 25 to 35 cents a bushel below world price levels at which the agreement seeks to stabilize prices in world markets.

Under the presidential order, Freeman would have authority to control exports—that is, the quantity as well as the price. But if exporters were able to buy wheat at $1 and sell at $1.25 to $1.30 a bushel in export markets as a result of government action.

About the only way that the government could eliminate such a profit would be to sell wheat for export to exporters in line with the world market price.

But to keep government sales from having an undue price-depressing on domestic wheat prices, the department might buy from 1964 production as much wheat as it sold for export. The government would be in a position to make a little profit insofar as domestic market prices were below the world export prices

The agriculture Department says recent upturns in wool prices carry seed for later reductions in consumption of the fiber to the benefit of man-made fibers.

The Foreign Agricultural Service reports that world cattle numbers have climbed to a record high of 1.1 billion head, an increase of 2 per cent over a year ago.

Indiana leads the nation in the percentage of its farms having electric service, the figure being 99.5 per cent. For the country as a whole 97.6 per cent of the farms have such service.

ROOKIE ACTOR HAS LEADING ROLE IN FILM

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Tony Bill is a refreshing challenge to the contention there is no such thing in show business as an overnight success.

A year ago he was on the brink of graduating from Notre Dame, wanting to get married but undecided about his future. He had virtually completed two full courses at the university—in English and art—and he had been invited back for further study.

He was asked by a professor what he really wanted to do in life.

"I think I want to be an actor," said Tony, who had performed in every school play he could get into.

IS RECOMMENDED

The professor wrote a letter of recommendation to film director Leo McCarey, whom he had once met. Tony followed up with a visit to Hollywood — his first, although he grew up in San Diego, 130 miles away.

McCarey was impressed and called the top man at the William Morris talent agency.

"I was handed down through echelons until I came to an agent who talked to me," Tony recalled. "Within 15 minutes I was in the office of Norman Lear and Bud Yorking to discuss playing Frank Sinatra's brother in 'Come Blow Your Horn.'"

Tony Bill, who had never acted outside of school, found himself playing a leading role with such pros as Sinatra, Lee J. Cobb and Molly Picon.

NOW IN DEMAND

Now the producers are knocking at his door. He is set for "The Carpetbaggers"—"a small part, but that's all right with me; I want to learn." Then he goes into "Soldier in the Rain," in which he is billed below Jackie Gleason and Steven McQueen.

How does all this feel?

"Great," said Tony, a dark-haired, thin-faced, personable 22. "At least I like everything about it so far. In a few months when people start recognizing me, I may feel different about it."

His success solved one problem: getting married. Last December he married Toni Gray, a Hammond, La., girl whom he met while she was attending St. Mary's College near Notre Dame.

Yes, that makes them Toni and Tony Bill, but he is not concerned.

"It doesn't confuse us," he said. "And whoever calls us on the phone knows which Tony he wants to talk to."

Justice Warren Calls For Great National Debate On Three "Silent" Amendments

EDITOR'S NOTE—Chief Justice Earl Warren has called for a great national debate on three proposed constitutional amendments that have quietly slipped through 16 state legislatures. One of these amendments would change the way of amending the Constitution. In this second of three articles, Associated Press staff writer Stanley Meisler analyzes this amendment and looks at the rough road ahead for all three proposals.

By STANLEY MEISLER

WASHINGTON (AP) — States righters quietly trying to push three new amendments into the U.S. Constitution have a long, rocky, weaving road ahead.

Without fanfare, the legislatures of 16 states have approved resolutions asking Congress to call a national convention to consider these amendments aimed at curtailing the powers of the federal government.

But the states vary in their likes and dislikes, and not all 16 have voted for the same amendments. Only one amendment so far has attracted as many as 12 states. The states righters need at least 34 states to take a long first step on the rough constitutional road.

The road would be eased in the future if one of these amendments does become a part of the Constitution some day. This amendment would change the way of amending the Constitution. But the supporters of the amendments now have to follow one of the routes outlined in the present Constitution. All these routes are rough, and the states righters have picked the roughest. It is so rough, in fact, that it never has been followed successfully before.

FAR REACHING PROVISIONS

The three proposed amendments would:

1. Make it possible for the states to propose and ratify constitutional amendments completely on their own.
2. Wipe out federal jurisdiction over the apportionment of seats in the state legislatures.
3. Make it possible for certain decisions of the U.S. Supreme Court to be overruled by a states-controlled "Court of the Union."

KENNEDY OPPOSED

Of late, these amendments have provoked a chorus of opposition that includes President Kennedy, Republican Gov. George Romney of Michigan and senators from both the Democratic and Republican parties. Chief Justice Earl Warren has called for a great national debate.

But, so far, there has not been a great debate. Most advocates of these amendments have failed to stand up and reply to the critics. Instead, they have continued their quiet drip drip push the amendments through the legislatures. By the route used, states righters first must line up 34 states—two-thirds of the 50—for each of the amendments.

WOULD CALL CONVENTION

If they succeed, Congress, under the Constitution, would have to call a convention to consider the amendments.

In any case, under the Constitution, amendments approved by this convention would be submitted to the states for ratification. If 38 state legislatures or state conventions—three-fourths of the 50—ratified the amendments, they would become part of the U.S. Constitution.

The 23 amendments now in the Constitution were approved by a less complicated method: they were proposed by a two-thirds vote in Congress and then ratified by three-fourths of the states.

NOT OVERLOOKED

States righters have not overlooked this more usual, less complicated way. The proposed amendments have been introduced in the House and Senate. But so far they have gotten nowhere, and supporters of the amendments have their hopes pinned on the state legislatures.

Now let us see how much simpler all this would be if the states righters had their way and their first proposed amendment was accepted.

Under it, a constitutional amendment could be approved if proposed by two-thirds of the state legislatures and then ratified by three-fourths of the legislatures. The whole idea of a national convention would be eliminated, though Congress, by a two-thirds vote, still would have the power to propose amendments.

FOR AND AGAINST

Those who favor this amendment see it simply as an easier way for the states to get their point of view into the U.S. Constitution.

But the opponents disapprove of the amendment because it leaves open the possibility of an amendment becoming part of the U.S. Constitution without any national deliberation—either by Congress or by a national convention.

Next: A look at the two amendments aimed at the U.S. Supreme Court.

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—This limping year, in which Congress has dragged its feet and the big powers look like bears in a slow waltz, may yet be memorable and even tense at home, if not abroad.

Racial barriers, caught between the Supreme Court decisions against state-imposed segregation and Negro demonstrations against segregation in all its forms, are crumbling in the South.

But even by year's end they will still be far from eliminated. Because of white resistance to the crumbling and Negro insistence upon hastening it, racial explosions in the South could turn this into an agonizing year.

FUTURE GLOOMY

And it can't even be guessed what will happen in Alabama if Gov. George C. Wallace insists on defying a federal court order—and President Kennedy uses troops to back it up—to admit Negroes to the University of Alabama.

In Congress this has been a dull, slow time. From the beginning of his term Kennedy has leaned over backwards to get along with Southern Democrats, even when they hurled roadblocks at some of his programs, like medical care for the aged.

On other programs they've been of help to him.

MAY TURN SOUR

But the pleasant relationship may turn sour and the help diminish if he really pushes hard for civil rights measures with teeth at the very time he's hoping Congress will give him the kind of tax cut program he's pleaded for.

Southern opposition to civil rights legislation, with the filibuster and all the dragged-out days and nights that means, could keep Congress in session on into fall.

And if he does push for civil rights bills Kennedy will have to think of what Southern antagonism will mean to Democratic party unity in 1964 and his chance for a second term.

Abroad, this year has been a kind of stumbling time for both the United States and its allies on one side and communism on the other.

AVOIDS CRISIS

Premier Khrushchev has avoided new crises. His time seems to have been taken up with:

1. Recovering from the bang to his prestige—after being forced to pull his missiles out of Cuba last fall—and perhaps pondering some other strategy of tit-for-tat to make the United States back down on something.
2. Trying to avoid a violent break with his Red Chinese critics while trying to rally world Communist opinion to his side before he has a showdown with the Chinese Communists. Some kind of showdown seems certain.

Meanwhile Kennedy has had his hands full trying to preserve allied unity—both on trade and defense—after French President de Gaulle cracked it at the seams with his tactics.

So the Kennedy administration has been wrestling with its allies over tariffs while offering plans, which sound far bigger than they look, for a NATO nuclear force.

In short, this first half of 1963 has been pretty much a time of preparation for the last half.

Tickled to death, were they? Nobody is that much tickled. Deep tickling exerts pressure. On ribs, armpits or elsewhere. Surface tickling tantalizes. With a light feathery touch. The nerves send the message. Tingling upward to the brain. Tickling in ye olden days. Was practiced as a torture. Today's kind of tickling. Is fun stuff and harmless.

ART WAS HOLY

NEW YORK (AP) — Art began in close connection with religion but eventually split from its origins and developed an independent course of its own, says Gerardus Van der Leeuw. He traces the process in a new book published by Holt, Rinehart and Winston, called "Sacred and Profane Beauty: the Holy in Art."

Here's the way such a plan might operate:

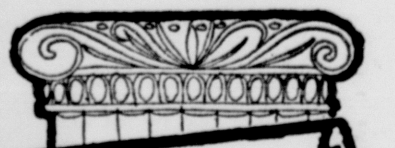

At 40 you give a man a five-week vacation, at 45 a six-week vacation, at 50 a seven-week vacation, at 55 an eight-week vacation, at 60 a nine-week vacation.

At 40 you also put a man on a four-day week, at 50, a three-day week, and at 60 a two-day week. Starting at 63, he'd come into the office only to pick up his paycheck.

At 65, such a fellow would no longer be too dependent on his job. He'd have learned to do most of his wife's work around the home, and be full of enthusiasms for a long carefree life on a pension.

CITY WATCHES RACE PROBLEM "UNEASILY"

By JAMES SAGGUS

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—Jackson kept an uneasy watch today on a racial situation which both sides feared might spawn demonstration attempts and possibly violence.

Involved exchanges of statements and one meeting have produced agreement on only one point: that Jackson would be the next Southern city to experience a concerted effort to win racial concessions.

The big question is what the effort will involve and when it will come. The answer could be disclosed tonight at a mass meeting of Negroes.

TO DISCUSS ISSUES

City officials and 17 Negro leaders who had been invited by Mayor Allen Thompson met Monday to discuss concessions sought by the Negroes.

The conference apparently produced nothing. Thirteen Negroes left after presenting their goals and without any discussion.

The 13 left abruptly when Thompson asked Negro editor Perry Greene to express his views. Greene and three other Negroes did not endorse the list of integration goals.

Observers saw little chance for compromise because the issues involved are so basic they could be resolved only by one side capitulating.

NACCP BACKED

Negro leaders, backed by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, called for desegregation in several areas. The Rev. E. A. Mays, spokesman for the majority of 13, said his group wanted the city to hire Negro policemen, remove segregation signs from public buildings, upgrade salaries of Negro employees, form a biracial committee, and desegregate eating places and public facilities and—eventually—schools on a voluntary basis.

Thompson, backed by most of the white community of Jackson, said he had "no moral or legal right to bargain away the rights of business men of either race."

Littlestown VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL OPENS JUNE 4

Children of Littlestown and surrounding community, age four years through the Sixth Grade, are invited to attend the annual Daily Vacation Bible School each weekday morning, June 4-14. Sessions will be held in the Rolling Acres Elementary School under the sponsorship of the local Ministerium. The doors will open at 8:30 p.m. and classes will be held from 8:45 to 11:15.

The Rev. William R. Jones, pastor of Centenary Methodist Church, will be acting director of the Bible school for the first week, and the Rev. Glenn Flinchbaugh, pastor of Redeemer's United Church of Christ, will be director for the second week. The local ministers and other lay-volunteers will conduct the classes and comprise the staff. The school will conclude with a program by the pupils for parents and friends on June 14.

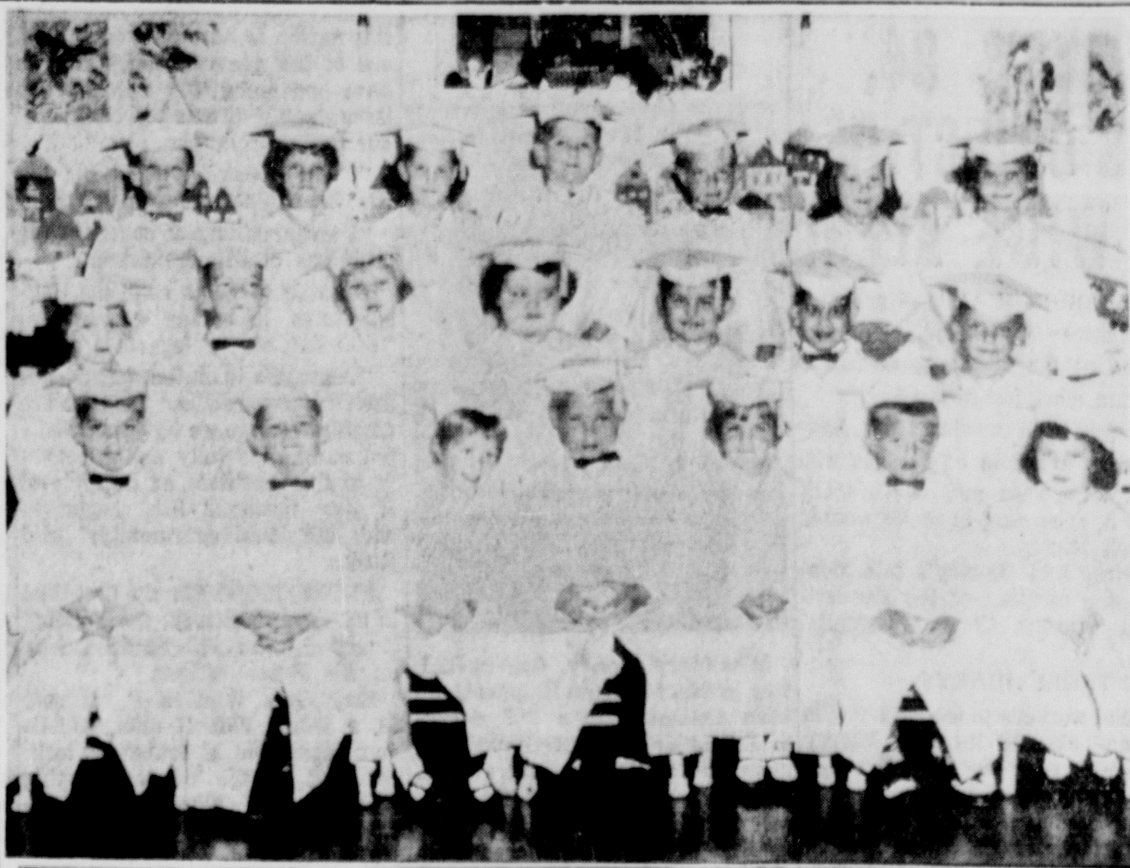

The annual community Memorial Day will be held on Wednesday evening. A parade will form at the Maple Avenue School and move at 7 p.m. The line-up will go to E. Myrtle St., south on N. Queen, through the square, S. Queen St., pause at the veterans monument for brief services and placing of wreaths, south to Cemetery St., and on to Mt. Carmel Cemetery. The memorial address at the cemetery will be presented by the Rev. Fr. Francis P. Wagner, pastor of St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Taneytown. Local ministers will participate in the service, which will also include selections by the high school band.

KINDERGARTEN GRADUATES 43

Forty-three children were awarded diplomas today at graduation exercises at Mrs. Collins' Kindergarten, East Broadway. Programs were presented at 9:30 and 1:30 for parents and friends.

Each program opened with the processional "Pomp and Circumstance" by Elgar, and a short devotional period which included the flag salute, the song "America," a choral reading of the "Twenty Third Psalm," the hymn "God Loves Me," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The theme for each program was "Fun All Day Long." Through songs, finger plays, choral speaking, and recitation the children emphasized "fun" in early rising, good grooming, a wholesome breakfast, outdoor play, observation of nature, care of pets and cooperation at bedtime. Soloists were Heather MacPhail, Kelly Tussing, and Dorothy Snyder in the morning group; Denise Condie, Kim Mehl, and Louis Villard in the afternoon.

Each group depicted "fun" in rhythm by playing a rhythm band selection "Our Director" and by dancing a Danish group dance, "Seven Jumps," and a German folk dance, "Hansel and Gretel," from Humperdinck's opera. Kay Sneeringer directed the morning rhythm band and Robin Morris was the leader in the afternoon.

Each program concluded with all the children in costume participating in an original one act operetta, "It's Fun to Meet the People on Our Street." Heather MacPhail was the announcer for the morning group and Denise Condie announced in the afternoon.

Dies After Liver Transplant Surgery

DENVER (AP)—William Grigsby, 47, a janitor, died Monday night, 22 days after he received the liver of a dead man in a rare transplant operation.

Physicians said Grigsby contracted pneumonia Sunday but the exact cause of death has not been determined.

Grigsby, who had cancer of the liver, received X-ray treatments and drugs to aid his body in accepting the substitute organ.

Back On Job With His Arm Sewed On

DIJON, France (AP) — Alain Vachey, 22, was back at his job as a truck driver today three months after his right arm was nearly cut off in an accident.

All but a narrow band of flesh was severed off his upper arm by a falling beam. A Dijon surgeon operated for three hours mending the bone and re-attaching blood vessels and nerves.

Vachey has recovered almost full use of the arm.

35 Countians Enrolled At PSU; Thousands Aided

The extensive role Penn State University plays in the daily life of Adams County is indicated in an annual report issued by the university on the services of PSU for the people of Adams County and the Commonwealth during the 1961-62 academic year.

Thirty-five young people from the county were enrolled as students at the university during the last academic year and two others were enrolled at the York campus of PSU.

A total of 201 countians attended conferences at the university during the same year and 50 countians took courses of instruction offered by the continuing education services last year at locations and times convenient to them. At least 27 Penn State faculty members spoke to service clubs, professional organizations and educational and religious groups during the year.

More countians had contacts with Penn State through the agricultural and home economic extension services with offices here in Gettysburg than through any other means.

Records show that staff members of the county office made 1,349 home visits, handled 1,523 office calls, 2,847 telephone calls, issued 371 news releases, gave 463 radio broadcasts and 18 television presentations. They distributed 10,839 information bulletins, conducted 22 meetings for training leaders with 441 persons attending. They held 562 meetings for adults and 4-H clubs with a total attendance of 51,411. 4-H clubs in the county had 663 projects enrolled.

Dysentery Outbreak Hits Toyko Hotel

TOKYO (AP)—About 550 guests, mostly Americans, refused to leave the swank Imperial Hotel today despite an outbreak of dysentery among the hotel's employees. The hotel has shut down food, beverage and room services.

A hotel spokesman said the number of dysentery cases had reached 78. There were 33 cases reported Monday among the hotel's 1,730 employees.

Calm Teacher Averts Tragedy For 28 Pupils

Editor's Note—The swift, calm work of an elementary school teacher averted possible tragedy Monday to 32 persons, including 28 Carnegie children. Miss Margaret Rankin brought a school bus to a safe halt on the busy Penn. Lincoln Parkway East in Pittsburgh after the driver was stricken and slumped over the wheel. Here is Miss Rankin's account of what happened.

By MISS MARGARET RANKIN

(As told to The Associated Press) PITTSBURGH (AP)—My sixth grade class had just finished its field trip, a ride on the Gateway Clipper (a river boat), and we were on our way home.

I was in the second seat from the driver, on the same side as he was. I had just been talking with the children. They were discussing the trip on the Clipper. Something caused me to look at him—I guess it was the jolt of the bus.

WHEEL HITS CURB

The front wheel of the bus just hit the curb. That may have been what caught my attention. It wasn't going straight. It was sort of an angle, taking up the middle lane and the right lane.

The driver (Leon Chwilka, 44, of Carnegie) slumped sideways in his seat. I thought at the time he had had a heart attack. But as it turned out the doctors said he had a cerebral hemorrhage.

I saw immediately there was something wrong. I rushed up to him and was able to straighten the bus up. I put my foot on the brake and stomped the bus.

DIDN'T PANIC

There was a truck driver — I don't know his name—he wanted to know if I could move the bus, and I said no. He pulled it to the curb out of danger.

The children sat still and didn't move. They were frightened of course, but there was no screaming or crying. They remained perfectly quiet.

I didn't feel any panic. That came afterward. If I hadn't gotten help immediately, it would've been much worse for me. I never touched a bus before. I think it was just instinct. I don't even think I had my driver's license with me.

EXPERTS CLAIM FAULTY DEVICE IN SPACE SHOT

By HOWARD BENEDICT

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)

—Expert scientific detective work has determined that troubles with an electrical amplifier caused the failures which forced astronaut Gordon Cooper to steer his spacecraft manually back to earth.

Moisture perhaps from Cooper's perspiring, corroded a connection on the small electronic box called an Amp Cal—for amplifier calibration—and wiped out all spacecraft automatic controls down to a certain re-entry point.

An electrical short in an Amp Cal solder connection, probably because of faulty insulation, knocked out the remainder of the automatic re-entry controls and left Cooper on his own with the manual system.

REPORTS TESTS

These results of exhaustive tests were reported Monday night by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

The Amp Cal is designed to change electrical signals received from various spacecraft sensors, such as gyroscopes and infrared horizon scanners, into firing commands which ignite small jets in the capsule's automatic system.

The streams of hydrogen peroxide gas shooting from the jets maintain the spacecraft's proper position and angle in relation to the earth.

As Cooper whirled on the 19th of his 22 orbits two weeks ago, a green light labeled 05g suddenly flashed on and indicated erroneously that he might be re-entering the atmosphere early. Then two inverters which transform alternating to direct current to support certain automatic functions did not work.

Hawaian Stamp Brings $41,000

NEW YORK (AP)—A two-cent Hawaian stamp was sold Monday night for $41,000—said to be a record for a single stamp sold at auction.

The stamp, issued in 1851 for use mainly by missionaries, is the only known copy of this particular stamp which had not gone through the mails.

The Hawaian stamp was from the collection of the late Maurice Burrus of Lausanne. It was bought by Raymond Weill, a professional philatelist from New Orleans.

POPE IS CALM DESPITE HIS GRAVE ILLNESS

By BENNET M. BOLTON
VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope John XXIII, struggling for a week against grave illness, was said today to be remarkably serene.

Sources said the Pope's private secretary, Msgr. Loris Capovilla, sits often by the pontiff's bedside reading aloud to him from "The Imitation of Christ."

The book of spiritual meditations, a favorite of the 81-year-old Pope, contains passages on the submission to whatever comes and on resignation in times of suffering.

The Pope's doctors have ordered him to remain in bed. He has been given daily communion there because he cannot go to his private chapel to say Mass.

Ice packs have been placed on his stomach to help coagulate his blood and stave off additional hemorrhaging, informants said.

GROWING WEAKER
The pontiff's ailment has been said to be an ulcer or cancer, with hemorrhages that left him repeatedly weakened and anemic even before his severe relapse of last week.

Medical attendants continued their all-night watch. The Pope's doctors remained close to the Vatican for any emergency. The papal sacristan remained near to administer extreme unction, the sacrament given to the critically ill, if necessary.

There was still anxiety in the Vatican despite word of slight improvement Sunday night and Monday.

Pope John's grave illness has caused suspension of Vatican plans for a papal audience with President Kennedy next month.

Indian Prisoner Quick To Leave

EUREKA, Calif. (AP) — When jailer Tom MacDonald came around to Robert Winsor Robideau's cell in the Humboldt County jail on Sunday and said, "Your time's up. You can go now," he got a speedy response.

Robideau was dressed in an instant and checked out in the wink of an eye.

It wasn't until later in the day MacDonald recollected that the 25-year-old Yuroc Indian still had over four months to serve for his petty theft conviction. Robideau was sentenced on April 8 to serve 180 days.

2ND TRIPLET PASSES AWAY

FRAMINGHAM, Mass. (AP) — Only Faith one of the famed Faith, Hope and Charity triplets—survived today.

Charity died at Cushing Hospital Monday, following her sister, Hope, in death by little more than a year.

The three sisters once were the nation's oldest living triplets. Faith is Annie Faith McDonnell, Charity was Nora Charity Murphy, widow of Edward Murphy, a former Boston and Worcester newspaperman. Hope was Ellen Hope Daniels.

The triplets were born in 1868 at North Brookfield to Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Coughlin, natives of Cork County, Ireland. Their fame began early—at the age of a few weeks when they won a baby show prize.

Over the years they received birthday greetings from all parts of the world. Presidents, royalty and church leaders had extended congratulations to them.

OTTAWA (AP) — A purported pre-election letter pledging U.S. Ambassador W. Walton Butterworth's support for Lester B. Pearson is a forgery, says the prime minister and the ambassador.

Gordon Churchill, former defense and veterans minister in the Conservative government of John G. Diefenbaker, charged in the House of Commons Monday that Butterworth wrote Pearson prior to last April's election that "You can always count on our support."

Churchill said the ambassador told the Liberal leader it would be "quite evident" to Canadian voters that the Conservative government was "narrow-minded and unfit to govern."

Butterworth issued a statement denying he ever wrote such a letter and, like Pearson, called it a forgery.

Following his talk Dillon took the group to the central supply department of the hospital where Mrs. Rhoda Bosserman demonstrated the new $10,000 ultrasonic machine which the auxiliary purchased and which cleans instruments by sound. Members were permitted to put their hands in the water to feel the effect of the sound waves in the machine which takes only 2½ minutes for the cleaning and 10 to 12 minutes for rinsing and drying. The glove washing machine was demonstrated, as well as the autoclave (sterilizing) machine and the women were shown the sterile storage room and the recovery room where the patients are taken after an operation.

Mrs. David A. Stoner, president, presided at the business meeting. Secretary and treasurer's reports were given by Mrs. Robert A. Codori and Mrs. M. C. Jones. Mrs. Charles Weaver, photo babe chairman, reported that during the month 111 pictures were taken and paid for.

Mrs. James Allison, benefit chairman, stated that workshops are being held at her home on the first Monday of each month and that last month a number of county women came in to work. The Fairfield women are making aprons for the bazaar which will be held November 22 and members of the Medical Auxiliary are making candles and accessories. Members are asked to accumulate articles for the white elephant table, the toy table, the "like-new" table, thrift shop, etc.

HARVEY, 84, IS OBJECT OF WIDE ALERT

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Harvey, a diminutive 84-year-old chap, remains at large today, despite a 14-state alert for him.

Harvey is no convict. He is, however, an example of persons who don't want help and won't profit from it, according to social worker Joseph Mulroy.

Mulroy told Harvey's tale Monday at a meeting of the Pennsylvania Citizens Council Commission.

WON THEIR HEARTS

Social workers placed Harvey in jail and cleaned him up, Mulroy said, after they discovered he had been living in a public park in Beaver County for weeks.

"We lost our hearts to him on the spot," Mulroy said. "He was only 4 feet 8 inches tall, and there was something very winsome about him."

Placed in a foster home, Harvey appeared joyously content. Mulroy said Harvey called the welfare department every day to express his gratitude.

LEFT IN FALL

But when autumn's first winds enveloped Beaver County, Harvey disappeared. Local bartenders disclosed he had been free-loading drinks. They also knew of his way of living.

Every fall Harvey went south, seeking the way of life he knew and enjoyed.

"We sent out a 14-state alert for him," Mulroy said, "but to this day we don't know where he went. Apparently there are some people who just won't profit from public assistance."

with the purchase.

Thirty members attended the meeting. The Tuesday Bridge Club was hostess for the coffee hour under the direction of Mrs. Russell A. Campbell, Mrs. R. D. Wickerham, Mrs. J. B. Berry, Mrs. Donald Grant and Mrs. Edgar L. Deardorff. Mrs. Thomas poured.

Today In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the news from Washington:

HAPPY BIRTHDAY: President Kennedy will celebrate his 46th birthday Wednesday with a family party in the White House.

Most members of the Kennedy clan are expected to attend, although it is doubtful the President's father, Joseph P. Kennedy, will make the trip from his summer home at Hyannis Port, Mass.

The President plans to spend Memorial Day at Camp David, the weekend retreat in the Catoctin Mountains of Western Maryland.

DISCRIMINATION: Secretary of State Dean Rusk, usually concerned with international issues, expressed deep concern Monday about a domestic problem.

Speaking before a conference on foreign policy for non-governmental organizations, Rusk said:

"We ought all to recognize that this nation is now confronted with one of the gravest issues that we have had since 1865 and that this issue deeply affects the conduct of our foreign relations.

"I am speaking of affects the conduct of our foreign relations."

"Because of it, he said, the United States is racing communism 'with one of our legs in a cast.'"

"Our voice is muted, our friends are embarrassed, our enemies are gleeful because we have not really put our hands fully and effectively to this problem at every level of our national life, beginning with the local community," said Rusk.

PROMOTION: For the first time in its 43-year history, the National Guard Bureau will be headed by an Air Force officer.

Maj. Gen. Winston P. Wilson, 52, a World War II pilot, will be nominated for a four-year term as chief of the bureau starting Aug. 31, the White House disclosed Monday.

The Arkansan, who has been deputy chief for 10 years, will succeed Army Maj. Gen. Donald McGowan of New Jersey who is retiring.

CONTRACTS: Lockheed Aircraft Corp. tops the list of military contractors with more than $1.4 billion worth of defense work awarded this year, the Defense Department has told congress.

General Dynamics Corp. ranked close behind, and stood No. 1 among 2,042 contractors handling experimental, test and research work for the entang.

The figures were made public today in testimony released by the House Military Appropriations subcommittee.

The Defense Department said Lockheed received 5.6 per cent of the military prime contracts awarded in fiscal 1962.

Other firms receiving more than $1 billion worth of prime contracts: General Dynamics at $1.2 billion, Boeing Co. at $1.1 billion and North American Aviation, Inc. $1 billion.

NIXON ACCEPT ACCEPT DRAFT IN '64 RACE

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon says Pennsylvania Gov. William Scranton has "many of the attributes of a good candidate" for the Republican presidential nomination.

"He's a good strong darkhorse," Nixon said Monday night at an impromptu sidewalk news conference in downtown Pittsburgh.

At the same time, Nixon said he would "under no circumstances" consider a draft for the GOP's 1964 nomination.

HAS EXPERIENCE

The defeated 1960 presidential candidate said Scranton has had experience in national affairs as a congressman, in international affairs while in the state department and now in state business.

But, Nixon added, "His performance as governor will determine what kind of chance he has for nomination in 1964 or 1968."

"I would say there is no leading candidate right now for next year," Nixon commented. "The race is wide open. The man who gets going the soonest and works the hardest will get the nomination in my opinion."

4 OBVIOUS ONES

He said there obviously are four persons who have been mentioned as possible candidates—Scranton, Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York and Gov. George Romney of Michigan.

Nixon said Goldwater has "a great deal of strength among Republican leaders and has a lot of solid support in the country. He also has a lot of support among congressmen. He's a very attractive candidate."

He added: "Neither he nor anyone else has a lock on the nomination at this time."

IS DINNER GUEST

Nixon declined comment on the recent marriage of Rockefeller and the effect it may have on his political future.

On other matters, Nixon said the Cuban situation could be the decisive factor in the defeat of the Kennedy Administration if the picture does not change for the better by next year.

Commenting on the racial difficulties in the South, he said, "We in the North instead of pointing a finger at the South should look to our own (racial) problems."

Nixon was guest of honor at a dinner at the exclusive Duquesne Club given by President Frank Rackley of Jessop Steel Co.

COUPLE KILLED

BEDFORD, Pa. (AP)—An Arizona man and his wife were killed Monday in the crash of their car against a tree on the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

State police said the car of Ralph Shearer, 39, and his wife, Florence, 38, of Mesa hit the tree after going out of control about nine miles west of the Bedford interchange.

Mellon Branch Is Held Up Again

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Police were looking today for the bandit who staged the second holdup within six months at a Mellon National Bank & Trust Co. branch on the city's North Side. The gunman escaped with $9,087.

"Don't stare at me," the bandit ordered head teller George Bender 64, Monday. "Give me the large bills." The holdup man's gun rested on the counter.

A foot chase by two bank officers was unsuccessful. The man, described as tall and husky, fled in an old car.

The bank was robbed of $14,310 last Dec. 10, but the bandit was captured and has been sentenced to 25 years in a federal prison for that holdup and several other crimes.

JFK IGNORES ESCORT BID

WASHINGTON (AP) — A proposal by some Negroes that President Kennedy personally escort two Negro students into the University of Alabama next month has attracted little interest at the White House.

Official administration spokesmen declined to say anything today about such suggestions. Sometimes, official silence at the White House cloaks backstage maneuvering. In this case, however, there seems to be no evidence to indicate that the suggestion was receiving serious consideration.

The idea has been broached publicly by the Rev. Martin Luther King, a leader of the desegregation movement, and privately by some members of a Negro group that met Friday with Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy in New York.

DEEPLY CONCERNED

The President is known to be deeply concerned about the possibility of an integration crisis in June at the University of Alabama. However, he said at his news conference last Wednesday that he believes questions of this kind should be dealt with through the courts, with state and local officials maintaining law and order.

The President said nothing to indicate he was contemplating personal involvement, beyond what he described as his obligation to enforce federal court orders even when this requires the use of federal troops and marshals.

U.S. Dist. Judge H. Hobart Grooms has ordered two Negroes admitted on June 10 to the University of Alabama—one at the main campus at Tuscaloosa and one at the school's Huntsville branch.

Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace, an outspoken segregationist, took the judge's order as the occasion for repeating a pledge personally to bar the Negroes at the doors of the university.

BOY FATALLY HURT

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Robert Gallagher, 9, of the city's Mt. Washington section was injured fatally when his bicycle struck a stopped auto Monday night.

GETS 10 YEARS IN DEATH OF TEXAS MAN

CARLSBAD, N.M. (AP)—Harold L. Brown, 38, of Franklin, Pa., has been sentenced to up to 10 years in the state penitentiary after pleading guilty to manslaughter.

Brown originally had been charged with first degree murder in the death of Albin G. Thoren, 56, of Harlingen, Tex.

Thoren had apparently picked up Brown, who was hitch-hiking. Brown admitted fighting with Thoren in a motel here last Feb. 21. Thoren's body was later found in a swamp near West Palm Beach, Fla., and Brown was arrested March 5 at Grants, N.M., while driving Thoren's car.

District Judge Caswell S. Neal in permitting a charge of manslaughter, said a pathological report and testimony at a preliminary hearing did not warrant a more serious charge.

Brown was sentenced in federal court to two years imprisonment on a charge brought by the FBI of driving Thoren's stolen car across state lines.

LEMA TAKES MEMPHIS OPEN

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Tony Lema enjoyed his new status as second leading money winner on the circuit today after winning the $30,000 Memphis Open golf tournament.

The lanky San Leandro, Calif., veteran pocketed $9,000 Monday after winning a sudden-death playoff off with Tommy Aaron of Gainesville, Ga., who drew $4,600.

The victory put Lema in second place in winnings this year behind Jack Nicklaus who won $1,400 in this tournament for 11th place. Lema won top money on the first hole of the playoff with a par four to Aaron's bogey. The two had ended the regulation 27 holes deadlocked at 10 under par 270.

With Aaron leading by two strokes after 16 holes, Lema tied it up with two straight birdies. The first came when a tee shot fell near the pin on the par three 17th hole. The clincher followed when he reached the green of the 500-yard 18th in two strokes.

Policeman Confuses Chief With Report

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Police reports don't always mean what they say. For instance, an officer assigned to investigate thefts of hub caps from a car at the municipal airport parking lot wrote in his report:

"A watch order has been placed on the car lot to prevent further larcenies by airport policemen." His superior officers told of the report, said it meant that airport policemen were watching the lot.

Newlyweds Supply Water For Laundry

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — The newlyweds, both working folk, were finding their new life in their new home just lovely except for one thing: The water bills.

Even to newlyweds, the water bills seemed unusually high. Then one day, the husband came home unexpectedly. He found a hose connected to his outside faucet. It led across the lawn into his neighbor's window where it was attached to his neighbor's washing machine doing his neighbor's laundry.

Chief Justice Earl Warren and his wife arrived in Madrid today en route to Palma on the Island of Majorca off Spain.

At Palma, they will attend the observance of the 250th anniversary of the birth of Father Junipero Serra.

Warren, a former governor of California, noted that before leaving New York that Father Serra was the founder of 21 Franciscan missions in California. He said he was going to Palma as a Californian to pay tribute to Father Serra.

Dr. Charles Malik, one of the founders of the United Nations, predicts that, if it should collapse, a new organization would be created immediately to perform the same functions.

Malik, a professor of philosophy at the American University of Beirut, Lebanon, also said in an interview Monday at Mobile, Ala.: "We will either have the United Nations or a worthy successor because the alternative is chaos."

Malik was in Mobile to deliver the commencement address at Spring Hill College today.

Anthony Newley, star and author of the hit British musical "Stop the World—I Want to Get Off" now playing on Broadway, was married Monday at Norwalk, Conn.

The bride was British actress Joan Collins. Newley, 31, and Miss Collins, 29, were married by a justice of the peace. It was the second marriage for both.

Anxious Driver Has Ticket Choice

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — The parking meter had just run out of time, and the motorcycle cop was just starting to write a ticket when the car owner spotted him from across the street. He ran across, right in the middle of the block.

"This your car?" the cop asked. "Yes, yes," replied the car owner.

"I'll give you your choice," said the cop. "You want a parking ticket or a jaywalking ticket?"

SAY QUIGLEY IS INTERESTED

WASHINGTON (AP)—James M. Quigley, assistant secretary of health, education and welfare, is showing cautious interest in the suggestion made by Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., that he might make a good Pennsylvania senatorial candidate in 1964.

"I'm not running for it and I'm not running away from it," Quigley said Monday, but he added that he thinks his chances of getting the nomination "are less than the best."

Quigley, a Camp Hill, Pa., lawyer, served two terms in Congress from Pennsylvania's 16th District, and was administrative assistant in Clark's Washington office for a time in 1957.

Also mentioned by Clark as possible Democratic challengers to Republican incumbent Hugh Scott were former Gov. George M. Leader; Miss Genevieve Blatt, state secretary of internal affairs; and state Senator Leonard C. Staisley, D-Allegheny.

Ancient Factory Found Near River

COSHOCKTON, Ohio (AP) — Evidence of a "factory" which produced sharpened stone heads for javelins, flint scrapers for working on animal hides and crude tools for woodworking, 7,000 to 9,000 years ago has been found along the Walhonding River.

Dr. Olaf H. Prufer of Case Institute of Technology, in a monograph published by Cleveland's Museum of Natural History, says the production-distribution system probably was set up after the last Ice Age by Paleo-Indians, who lived in the Midwest before the Indians encountered white settlers.

Catholic Bishop Doubles Lay Board

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Roman Catholic Bishop Victor J. Reed has changed the church board of education from an advisory to a regulatory body, and doubled the lay representation on the board, to include six laymen.

It runs the parochial schools in the Oklahoma City-Tulsa Diocese.

Baptist Editor Praises Kennedy

DALLAS (AP) — A Southern Baptist editor who vigorously opposed election of a Roman Catholic as President has voiced a different view after a visit with President Kennedy.

E. S. James, editor of the Baptist Standard, said that he had opposed Kennedy in 1960 "on a sincere belief that no member of the Roman Catholic Church would be free to think and act independently" but that Kennedy "has disillusioned many of us." James praised the President's on separation of church and state.

Rabbi Warns Dates Are Distracting

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Many high school-age youngsters are too much concerned with dating, and not concerned enough about education for their future, Dr. Jerome D. Folkman says.

Folkman, Rabbi of Temple Israel, urges parents to be parents — not companions to their children, adding:

"If our young people worry through algebra and English and other classes about whether they'll have dates after next Saturday's basketball game, education is falling on deaf ears."

Cover that leftover roast or oven-fried chicken when you put it in the refrigerator; if you don't, it will absorb the flavors from other foods.

REOPEN RAIL

OWEGO, N. Y. (AP)—The Erie-Lackawanna Railroad's mainline tracks were reopened for traffic Monday after being blocked overnight by a seven-car derailment. Railroad officials said traffic was rerouted while the damage was repaired.

The wreck was caused by the failure of a draw bar assembly connecting cars in the 103-car freight enroute from Scranton, Pa., to Hornell, N. Y., a spokesman said.

'COPTER SET FOR 2ND HOP

GOOSE BAY, Labrador (AP)—

A U.S. Air Force twin-turbine helicopter waited today to attempt the next leg of a 3,511-mile ocean crossing to Paris.

The flight is intended to be the second successful Atlantic hop by helicopter. An earlier aircraft flew from Westover Air Force Base, Mass., to Scotland in 1952.

The flight plan called for stops at Greenland and Scotland before touchdown at Le Bourget, France, outside Paris, about 11 a.m. (EST) Friday.

With three Air Force captains aboard, the CH-3B 'copter landed safely at Goose Bay at 3:22 p.m. (EST) Monday.

The journey began Monday at Otis Air Force Base, Cape Cod, Mass., with a first stop for refueling at Loring AFB, Maine.

The crew numbers Capt. John D. Arthurs, 36, Chester, Pa.; William A. Scott III, 31, Cambridge, Md.; and William B. Lehman, 32, Dallas, Tex.

At Otis AFB, a spokesman said the original plan called for the helicopter to carry extra fuel in two 500-gallon tanks to give the aircraft a 14-hour range. However, it was found the weight would exceed the permissible limit so the 'copter took off with the tanks empty.

3 GRADUATED ON SUNDAY AT MILLERSVILLE

Three Littlestown girls were graduated from the Millersville State College, when commencement exercises were held there on Friday. Each received the Bachelor of Science degree in a class of approximately 240. Each of the local graduates was an honor student in the Littlestown High School Class of 1963.

Miss Janice Carol Breighner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn A. Breighner, Prince St., was a French and English major and received her degree in secondary education. ## Choice Of Art Is Personal URBANA, Ill. (AP) — Your own family's likes are what count if the paintings, etchings or drawings you select are to "belong" in your home.

That's the advice of W. C. Kauffman, University of Illinois home furnishings expert.

According to Kauffman, you can learn to recognize the qualities you like in pictures by visiting galleries and other exhibits. Look at many different works before you make a choice for your home.

The more you look, the better you will be able to put your finger on "the something" that always draws you to a picture.

The qualities you most enjoy are the ones you can probably best live with.

LOOK WHAT CAME

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — John D. Dorchester had thought of trying to get a 1963 car license with the same number as his street address, 4304 S. Sandusky Ave. But he never got around to it, so he just stood in line and took the tag handed to him.

It's number — ZE-4034.

OUTDOORS IS "FOR LIVING" SAYS SCRIBE

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Time was when we were all happy to get outdoors in summer. But now that we LIVE out there, we have our doubts, what with fence-to-fence lawn, fancy furniture, exotic plants, artistic lighting, barbecue equipment that is an engineering production. Some homes have art on the terrace walls.

Everything is getting too precious.

A wonderful stage has been set. But the family wants to know: When does the play begin.

Nobody enjoys the rules and regulations.

Dad is accused of running the lawn mower into the new patio furniture, and nicking it. The kids are told to take off their shoes when they walk on the grass. There is barbecue grease on the patio walk, charcoal ashes on the deck, and shame on the thoughtless person who put his feet on the new chaise longue cushions.

ENJOY SUMMER

C'mon now, let's enjoy the summer.

Trees are for little boys to climb. And if you can't play baseball in your own backyard, well now! But Mom worries about those glass hurricane lamps, clay strawberry barrels and her prized dahlias.

The Junior set has been fast losing ground anyway to parents' projects. How can we have slides and swings when we need a pretty lawn for croquet, asks Mom, who has just become an expert on crab grass removal.

If the man of the house says he'll be "dandelioned" before he'll lie in the broiling sun and clip the grass around the trees with manicure scissors, he's got a point. Visitors will never notice the difference, unless they're midgits.

The trouble with the new fancy outdoor diggin's is not so much that there is no diggin' allowed, but rather that the family just doesn't dig the rules.

BE PREPARED

Everybody must be prepared to take his post when a dark cloud appears. Perish the thought, but it happens—everything must be moved into the cellar until the shower is over. How many times can one do this with vigor during a rainy spell?

Let's get a new perspective on our outdoor living, and live it up. If the cushions aren't waterproof, and dirtproofed, we're sorry. Mom. And if your outdoor furniture can't take it, for shame, you're not a good shopper. Breakable gear doesn't belong outdoors with the elements. And if you insist on taking a facsimile of the kitchen stove into the yard, you had better make a slipcover for it, or suffer the consequences.

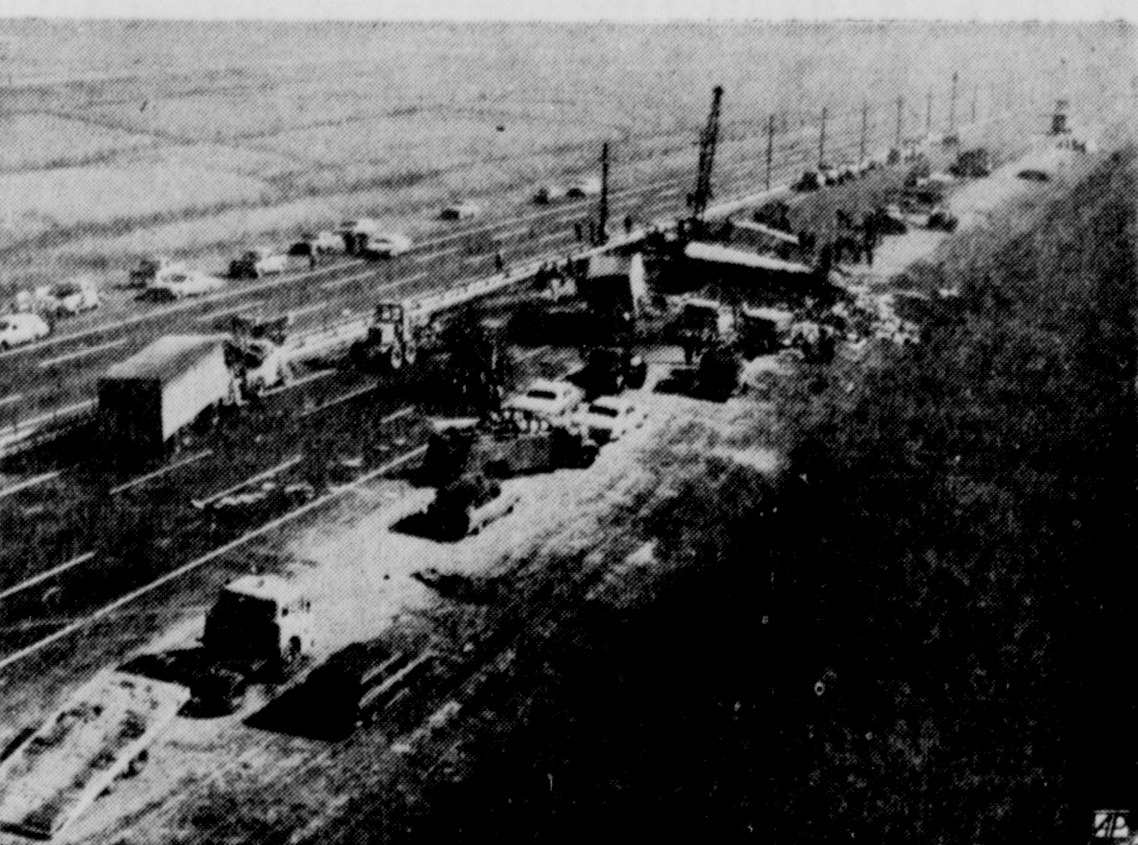

We don't mind tiptoeing through the tulips that you've placed in the entrance path, and putting raincoats over the boxwood when it storms, but couldn't we please use the swimming pool if we promise not to get the water too dirty?

IT'S HAVE IT

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Using a circle to dot an "I" is a sign of snobbishness, Charles F. Martin of Springfield, Ill., told a meeting of the Oklahoma Chapter of Graphoanalysis here. And Martin said the capital I is one of the best clues to personality, with a slope indicating a frightened child and a single upright stroke demonstrating strong character.

Your family will probably consider a creamed dish a treat if you top it with chow-mein noodles. Heat the noodles before serving.

Sales Tax Increase In House For Final Vote Today; Ponder Liquor Tax

HARRISBURG (AP)—The sales tax increase came up before the House for a final vote today while Republican leaders pondered strategy on a defeated proposal to raise liquor taxes.

The 5 per cent sales tax, estimated to produce $100 million in 1963-64, was the mainstay of the legislative program to raise $140 million in new taxes to balance the $1.2 billion general operating budget Gov. Scranton has proposed for the fiscal year beginning July 1.

Another portion, raising the six-cents-a-pack cigarette tax to eight cents in order to produce another $26 million, was before the governor for final approval.

24 GOP JUMP

But the liquor tax, carrying a price tag of some $13 million, was defeated Monday night, 82-116, with 24 Republicans jumping party ranks to vote with 92 Democrats against passage.

Included among the defectors was Speaker W. Stuart Helm, whose action was merely a parliamentary move.

Majority Leader Albert W. Johnson said afterwards, "I am resurrecting the bill (Tuesday).

POLICE BILL PASSES

"Is this a 'slush fund' that you are developing to advance the political ambitions of the governor?" he asked.

In other action in the House Monday, a once-vetoed plan for court martial procedures in the Pennsylvania State Police was passed 200-0, and sent to the Senate for further action.

The House also approved a proposed constitutional amendment that would more than double the borrowing capacity of local governments and school districts.

The court martial plan had been vetoed by former Gov. Lawrence after the 1961 legislature passed it.

BORROWING LIMITS
The legislation would create a three-member board of commissioned officers to hear actions involving dismissal or refusal of re-enlistment for enlisted members. The commissioner would be given the power to accept or reject the board's recommendations.

The constitutional amendment, which now goes to the Senate for action on House revisions, would affect all political subdivisions of the state rather than school districts, as originally proposed.

It would raise the subdivisions' borrowing authority from the present 7 per cent to 15 per cent of the assessed value of property. Voter approval would be required above 5 per cent, rather than 2 per cent.

NEW BILLS
Bills introduced Tuesday included one by Reps. William F. Renwick, D-Elk, and George Heffner, R-Schuylkill, to impose state regulations on out-of-state subdivisions seeking buyers in Pennsylvania.

The measure was sent to the committee on judiciary for initial study.

Republican Rep. Edwin G. Holl, Lansdale, introduced a bill (H11-85) that would expand state aid for industrial development to all areas of the state. He said his county's commissioners and industrial development committee had endorsed expanded state activity to help create research and development projects.

OTHER BILLS
Holl's measure would go beyond that, applying to all industrial development projects.

At present, state aid is restricted to labor surplus areas.

Other new House bills would: Authorize magistrates to recommend action in traffic violation cases (H1189)—Reps. Edwin G. Holl, R-Montgomery; Matthew J. Ryan, D-Delaware, and Robert J. Butera, R-Montgomery.

Work On Despite Torrential Rains
SARASOTA, Fla. (AP) — Some 17 inches of rain fell in 24 hours. Hundreds of homes were flooded. Cars stalled in streets where water was as much as six feet deep.

But men with jackhammers kept right on working on the National Bank of Sarasota's new drive-in facility.

And near by was their sign: "Pardon our dust — we are increasing our drive-up facilities."

Death Rate Low In Heart Surgery

STANFORD, Calif. (AP) — Only 10 deaths have occurred in 235 open heart operations in three years at Stanford Medical Center.

Dr. Norman Shumway and his assistants achieved spectacular results in removing tumors, closing holes and opening stuck valves while a machine took over the patient's heart and lung functions.

Even the most simple operation requires the services of about 50 persons, including 15 blood donors.

The center's first surgery was performed January 8, 1960.

NO 50-MILE PIKER

GRAND FORKS, N. D. (AP) — Cindy, a 2-year-old mongrel dog, says phooey to all this talk of 50-mile hikes. Their son brought the dog to Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Kalenze, but it disappeared. She showed up, thin and tired, but giggling with joy to be back at the son's ranch, 250 miles away near Berthold, N. D.

JUDGE TO RULE SCHOOL ISSUE IN BIRMINGHAM

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—A federal judge rules today on Negro demands that public schools in this racial trouble spot be desegregated. An attorney for the city school board said he believes the board will abide by the judge's decision.

"The school board certainly is not going to violate any decision of the court, in my opinion," attorney Reid Barnes said.

U.S. Dist. Judge Seymour H. Lynne has had two suits under consideration since last October.

The U.S. Supreme Court said Monday it will not tolerate avoidable delay in the carrying out of its 1955 order for all deliberate speed in school integration cases.

Both suits before Lynne requested injunctions barring the operation of segregated schools in Birmingham.

The first suit was filed in June 1960 by the Rev. F. L. Shuttlesworth, James Armstrong and Vernon English on behalf of their children. The second was brought in June 1962 by T. N. Nelson for his two children.

In Montgomery, U.S. marshals attempted to serve papers on Gov. George C. Wallace formally notifying him of a suit seeking to prevent the governor from carrying out his promised intervention when two Negroes try to enroll at white units of the University of Alabama for the June 10 summer term.

The heavily guarded governor eluded the marshals, however, and he handed the papers to a Negro maid at the mansion. They told her: "Be sure he gets them."

Elsewhere on the racial scene:—The Congress of Racial Equality extended for 24 hours a temporary halt to racial demonstrations at Greensboro, N.C. Trials of 81 Negro demonstrators charged with trespass were postponed to June 10.

—Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy told owners of Southern movie theaters they should anticipate desegregation problems and try to solve them on a town by town basis. A spokesman said owners of about 80 per cent of all movie houses in the South were represented at the Justice Department meeting.

MORE ANNOYED ABOUT USE OF TV SHOW PLUGS

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—From time to time most television viewers including this one, have complained in columns, in letters and in person about the interruptive and distracting flood of promotional plugs for upcoming programs that turn up every half hour on so many television channels.

These low moans were pretty generally ignored. But now, it appears, this clutter, as it has been called, is getting attention in the right places. Some television advertisers have been blasting away at it, claiming among other things that all this listing of plugs, credits, billboards and coming-next-week bits has the effect of watering down the expensive sales messages.

At a recent meeting of the Association of National Advertisers, an executive of a company that invests large sums in television, reported that a committee monitoring programs on three networks found that periods as long as 10 minutes were entirely occupied by what were called "non-entertainment segments."

Most viewers, it is safe to assume, pay scant attention to those

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Pennsylvania Supreme Court will hear arguments in Philadelphia next week for a new trial for convicted killer Frank Earl Senk.

Senk's case was rescheduled Monday after the court decided to hear only Harrisburg district appeals during the session here this week.

Today In Harrisburg

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

HARRISBURG (AP)—The state Highways Department will receive bids June 21 on 19 projects, including a segment of the Erie-Pittsburgh-West Virginia Freeway in Butler County.

Highways Secretary Henry D. Harral in announcing the projects Monday said they involved 83.2 miles of roadway in 18 counties.

The counties are Armstrong, Berks, Bucks, Butler, Centre, Clarion, Clearfield, Clinton, Erie, Huntingdon, Indiana, Jefferson, Lackawanna, Philadelphia, Schuylkill, Somerset, Susquehanna and Union.

HARRISBURG (AP)—The state Traffic Safety Bureau is making a major change in its weekly listing of driver's suspensions and revocations.

Commissioner Harry H. Brainerd announced Monday that in the future the listing will carry only the names of drivers who must turn in their licenses because of motor vehicle violations.

Previously, the listing named all drivers who had received letters of suspension or revocation during a given week.

This caused some confusion, Brainerd said, because the affected driver might be stopped by a policeman while his case was under appeal.

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Senate has completed legislative action on a bill to set a $15,000 annual salary for a proposed commissioner of professional and occupational affairs.

Democrats solidly opposed the measure as it passed with Republican votes, 27-23.

Minority Leader Charles R. Weiner, D-Philadelphia, objected that the post would be filled by the governor without confirmation of the Senate.

He also reiterated his contention that transferring the Bureau of Professional Affairs from the Department of Public Instruction to the Department of State would inject politics into the licensing of the professions.

HARRISBURG (AP) — For the first time in the history of the state House of Representatives the page boys are wearing uniforms.

But like most new endeavors, this one, too, had its imperfections when it was discovered that the word "representatives" on the breast pocket was misspelled.

Chief Clerk R. T. Stimmel said Monday the word would be re-woven. The uniform, consisting of HARRISBURG (AP) — Legislation is needed to control "nefarious, unscrupulous and improper" consumer credit practices, according to a Senate subcommittee.

Reporting Monday on a year-long study of consumer credit in Pennsylvania, the banking subcommittee said:

"These practices and others equally pernicious have existed to such an extent that the regulation of the installment credit selling of goods and services, in addition to motor vehicles, is now necessary."

WHEN TO BLEACH. A lovely writes: Recently I have developed quite a few fine, dark hairs on my face. I would like to use a bleach, but do not know how to make or use one. Your advice, please.

The Answers: Before bleaching facial hairs, there are several points to consider. The results may be disappointing unless the hairs are like peach fuzz—really fine and sparse. Otherwise depilation is a better method.

The skin coloring must be taken into account, too. Posing against dark skin, lightened hairs may appear more noticeable than ever. This would also hold true for a deeply tanned skin. Actually the sun acts to fade fuzz but not a degree where the contrast with the skin is unnatural.

The third factor is the skin's condition. In the presence of allergies and blemishes, bleaching must not be undertaken.

would be wise to ask at your favorite cosmetic counter about recognized products. Or ask your druggist to make up a solution of hydrogen peroxide and aromatic spirits of ammonia.

Applications are simple: 1. To a soap-cleaned face, the bleach is applied with a cotton swab and allowed to remain for about 15 minutes. 2. Rinse with warm water, pat dry and apply baby lotion. 3. Repeat next day. If the effect is not all you wish, there after repeat the process as the need become apparent.
